

NEW TREATY IS SIGNED BY RUSSIA AND GERMANY

DUBLIN CONDITIONS NORMAL TO-DAY

People Did Not Anticipate General Disorder

Forces of Two Factions Watch Each Other

London, April 17.—Easter Monday was looked forward to with little trepidation by the citizens of Dublin, the usual reports to the morning papers indicate, there being nothing at the time the reports were filed to justify an assumption that the day would bring such an explosion of violence as the 1916 Easter rebellion. The reports, however, were not to be taken at face value, and the city has become quite hopeful.

Dangerous.

"Nevertheless," he adds, "of course it is understood that with two Irish armies watching one another through the sand-bagged windows of different public buildings, the situation is dangerous. The country's immediate hope rests on the resumed meeting of the peace conference on Wednesday between representatives of the Free State and 'Republicans.'"

"Powerful pressure of many sorts is being put on the rival leaders to reach an agreement which will eliminate the military peril, guarantee freedom of the elections and allow public opinion to express itself during the coming weeks."

The correspondent remarks that a feature of the situation is the connection, if any, between Eamonn de Valera and the seceding section of the Irish Republican Army, and he admits he is unable to throw any light upon it. It is noteworthy, however, that de Valera, speaking last night in Dublin at the celebration of the 1916 Easter rebellion, repeated his hostility to the treaty and told his hearers they could have unity and a stable Government behind volunteers who stood for the republic.

A dispatch sent from Belfast at midnight said:

Notwithstanding wild rumors of impending trouble in Belfast on Easter Sunday, not a single casualty has been reported up to midnight. An unusually large number of peacefully carried out by armed men, took place in the streets of Belfast Saturday night, but no big amounts were secured by the highwaymen.

Complete quiet prevailed Saturday night and Sunday along the Fermanagh border.

There was continuous fighting along the North side of Dublin on Saturday night. Considerable alarm prevailed among the residents in the neighborhood of the Broadstone Station and Mountjoy Prison, according to one account reaching there, the Republicans endeavored to seize Mountjoy Prison, which was guarded by Irish Republican Army regulars.

Broadstone is the station from which Arthur Griffith started for Sligo. Mr. Griffith took the bold course. Instead of smuggling himself into Sligo, he traveled in state on the Midland and Great Western Railroad with a guard of four Free State troops. At all the stations crowded to give the Dalhousie President a cordial reception. Handshaking was the order of the day at Mullingar, while at Longford, the local "Republican Army" members rendered honors and the inevitable brass band played national airs. Mr. Griffith said he was not afraid to speak in Sligo as he knew the people there, as well as in every county in Ireland, were behind him.

Griffith Spoke.

Dublin, April 17.—The meeting at which Arthur Griffith spoke in Sligo yesterday passed off peacefully. Commandant-General McKewen, with an armored car, and Free State troops kept the Sligo streets clear and there were no disturbances. All the other meetings were without disturbance.

DECLARE SOVIET TORTURES CONVICTS

No Cessation, Say German and Hungarians

Methods of Cheka Are Still Carried On

Berlin, April 17.—Fritz Nolde, a German business man who has just been released from the Butirka prison in Moscow and returned to Berlin, declares that there has been no modification of the treatment of prisoners since the Moscow Government announced that the dreaded Cheka and its methods were things of the past.

Nolde said that from his cell window, looking on the prison courtyard, he had seen naked men branded with hot irons and heard the cries of the victims. His experiences in the Soviet prison were so much more horrible than the shell fire and hardships that he endured in the world war that there was no comparison, he declared.

Several Hungarian officers released with Nolde bore out his assertions concerning the cruelties inflicted upon prisoners.

CONSTABLE CHASED MAN AND THEN SAVED HIS LIFE

Hamilton, Ont., April 17.—Trying to avoid a policeman who sought to arrest him for fighting Sunday, Alexander Voinivuk jumped off a dock into the bay. When he began to sink for the third time, he yelled for help and the constable, plunged in, and, after a hard struggle, saved him.

Gen. Semenov Said to Have Planned New Russian Uprising

Washington, April 17.—Suggestion that General Semenov, now in jail in New York, was enroute to Paris for the purpose of meeting Ex-Grand Duke Nicholas to plan a counter-revolution against the Soviet regime in Russia was made by Immigration Inspector Zurbick at Vancouver in a report to the Immigration Bureau following his examination of the Russian officer.

Attempt Was Made in Dublin on Life of Michael Collins

Dublin, April 17.—An attempt on the life of Michael Collins, head of the Irish Free State Provisional Government, was made this morning shortly after midnight, coming almost simultaneously with an assault on the Beggar's Bush headquarters of the "Irish Republican Army," says an official army statement.

Mr. Collins was on his way home after having addressed a meeting at Naas; County Kildare, when the attack occurred. A group of men, some armed with rifles, rushed at the Collins party's car and opened fire, the Free State leader apparently being an especial target. The Collins party quickly returned the fire and one of the attackers was killed. A revolver and a bomb were found on him.

WAS MAN HERE IN DRUG'S STUPOR?

Remarkable Story Comes from Chanute, Kansas

Man Says He Was Prisoner on Sailing Ship

Local police have been asked to investigate a story of mystery and possible crime from Chanute, Kansas. In March Melvin T. Surrie, son-in-law of the editor of The Daily Timesett, published at Chanute, left his home to establish a motor bus service between Shidler and Pawhuska, two towns in Northeastern Oklahoma. He took with him a 24-passenger bus which he had purchased in Des Moines. On arrival Surrie carried on his business out of Pawhuska for a time, later notifying his wife that he intended to change his route on account of road conditions.

On March 27 the bus owned by Surrie was found at Tulsa, containing his personal belongings. It appears that the bus was driven from Pawhuska to Tulsa and parked that afternoon outside a broom factory on the outskirts of the town. Workmen in the factory saw a man drop off the bus, answering generally the appearance of Surrie, but not dressed in any clothing of the missing man. The man hurried from the bus and disappeared. Surrie's belongings were intact when the Tulsa police made an investigation.

Relatives went to Tulsa to prosecute a search, but found nothing. Meanwhile Surrie has arrived at Chanute with a remarkable story. He says he was drugged on the way between Pawhuska and Tulsa and did not regain consciousness for eight days. He then found himself on a sailing ship, which has berthed in Victoria. Finding his guard asleep, he called a messenger boy, and in turn the boy notified an officer. As a result Surrie says he was released and spent two days in a Victoria hospital.

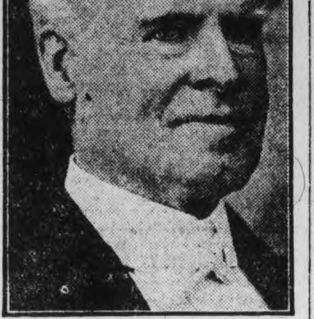

Surrie makes an allegation against the owner of the vessel, that if he was not located by April 10, 1922, this ship he mentions, would be the relationship of second cousin, would profit at his expense under a will of an uncle in England.

Inquiries fail to locate Surrie under that name at any hospital here in the period under review, nor do marine records give the name of the ship he mentions, however, further inquiries are being prosecuted.

BULLET TO BE REMOVED FROM LENINE'S SHOULDER

London, April 17.—Professor Borschardt, of the Moscow Hospital, has gone to Russia to operate on Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik Premier for the extraction of a bullet lodged in Lenin's shoulder in the autumn of 1918, when he was first shot by the student Dora Abilla, says a dispatch to The London Times from Berlin.

CARTOONIST HERE ON LECTURE TOUR: J. W. BENGOUGH

Mr. Bengough will speak in Victoria on his art and on the single tax following his examination of the Russian officer.

PUGET SOUND MILL TO OPEN THURSDAY

Victoria's Largest Lumber Plant Resuming Operations

The Local Market Is More Promising

The Canadian Puget Sound mill will re-open for business after an extensive overhaul and improvements on Thursday. This information was given to The Times on Saturday by W. D. Connor, President of the operating company who has been in the city for some days in consultation with the local market.

Mr. Connor indicated that the mill will cut to a maximum of 20,000 feet an hour. This will make it the second largest lumber mill on Vancouver Island.

To Renew Stock.

Owing to the shutdown, the mill stock has been depleted, and renewal of operations, irrespective of development in the lumber market, has now become essential, Mr. Connor said. The yards will be stocked, but in addition to this circumstance, it is the expectation there will be a considerable demand for lumber for private buildings. In Mr. Connor's opinion the local connections which the mill has built up since the company was re-organized now assure sufficient business to keep the plant running economically. This means employment in one form or another for about 300 persons.

The development of this local trade has become of increasing importance, Mr. Connor pointed out, owing to freight rates practically keeping lumber from this Coast out of the markets in the West where it would be reasonable to expect it would find a ready sale. As a large operator in Wisconsin, Mr. Connor remarked that some advantages were rates in the United States that Southern pine was competing profitably in the cities of Chicago, St. Paul, and Minneapolis with the timber from the adjacent States.

Arbitrary Rate.

Mr. Connor expresses the opinion that the removal of the arbitrary rate against Vancouver Island cars would result in more Island lumber being manufactured on the Island, instead of the logs being towed to Vancouver and other points on the Lower Mainland. He said that the condition here with mills in Clallam County, across the Strait, which were geographically on the mainland, are being forced to respond to the tariff in having their output towed to points on the Puget Sound for transshipment.

AN ATTACK.

The headquarters barracks was attacked by riflemen from all sides at midnight, about twenty shots being fired. Commandant General Ennis was fired at outside the gate. The garrison raked the surrounding territory with bullets, for shots seemed to be aimed at the car from four directions.

An army transport also was attacked, but without result, the attackers fleeing after an exchange of shots.

Shots were fired on the premises occupied by the civic guards at Ball's Bridge. No damage and no casualties were reported.

Determined Attack.

The Exchange Telegraphs Dublin correspondent describes the attack on Collins as a desperate attempt on his life.

"How he escaped," adds the Dublin correspondent, "was a miracle. He was in the car when the shots were fired, and he was able to escape by a narrow margin."

"Everybody nearby, fearing an extension of the trouble, fled from the scene. After a short interval a second burst of firing occurred. This is supposed to have been a reply by Collins and his friends."

One Captured.

London, April 17.—Details regarding the attempt upon the life of Michael Collins, head of the Irish Free State Provisional Government, are given by a correspondent of The Daily Sketch. Mr. Collins and four companions were walking from the railroad station to their hotel, according to his account, when three men fired six shots from the opposite side of the street. Two members of the Collins party returned the fire, and then chased the attackers, one of whom was captured, handed over to the police and taken to Mountjoy Prison. No one was injured by the shots.

The correspondent adds that there were several outbursts of firing in various parts of the city later, but he did not learn the cause, as it was not safe to go into the streets.

FRENCH GENOA DELEGATION ASKS WIDER POWER

Paris, April 17.—Louis Barthou believes the French delegation at Genoa must have a freer hand if it is to fulfill the tasks before it, telegraphs "Perrinax," political editor of the Echo de Paris, from Genoa. He says it has been evident that Mr. Barthou has been obliged to make decisions without consulting Paris on several occasions, notably on Saturday, and that he considers extension of his powers necessary to success.

Mr. Barthou spent Sunday in drawing up a full report of the first days' proceedings for transmission to Premier Poincare.

FIRE LOSSES.

Toronto, April 17.—Fires losses in Canada during the week ended April 12 are estimated by The Montreal Times at $504,248, as against $735,300 the previous week.

EACH IMMIGRANT FROM ASIA MUST HAVE $250 CASH

Ottawa, April 17.—Immigrants of any Asiatic race in future will not be permitted to land in Canada unless each possesses at least $250. This regulation, just made public, does not apply to a national of any country in regard to which there is in operation a special treaty, agreement or conventional regulating immigration.

IMMIGRANTS FROM EUROPE TO HAVE PASSPORTS VISED

Ottawa, April 17.—The passport of each alien immigrant landing in Canada from the continent of Europe, Great Britain or Ireland, must carry the visa of a Canadian Immigration Officer situated on the continent of Europe, according to a ruling just made by the Government. The passport of any immigrant which the ruling does not cover must carry the visa of a British diplomat or consular officer, and each must be presented within a year of the date of issue.

SAMSUN SCENE OF MASSACRE

Greek Christians Reported Killed by Turks

American Warship Urged to Visit Port

London, April 17.—A great fire and a massacre of Christians at Samsun, on the Black Sea coast of Asia Minor, were in progress nine days ago when the Italian steamship Barbita left there, the officers of the vessel reported to the British Consul at Samsun, Greece, says an Athens dispatch to The London Times, dated Sunday.

Turkish Nationalist Bash Bazouks, headed by Turkish officers, surrounded the Greek quarter and set it ablaze, shooting all who attempted to escape, the officers declared.

When the steamship sailed the last of the Greek Christians, who were on the waterfront, seeking refuge on steamers.

The Barbita sent a wireless message to an American warship in the neighborhood urging her to hasten to the relief.

MARTIAL LAW IN DAMASCUS AFTER MURDER

London, April 17.—A dispatch to the Central News from Cairo says martial law was proclaimed in Damascus following the murder last night of Assad Bey, Minister of the Interior of Lebanon, and disturbances following the murder. Several persons have been killed and many wounded in the Syrian hinterland, according to telegrams received to-day from Cairo, which add that the disturbances are becoming more violent.

MOVE TO END BETTING ON RACES

Ontario M. P. Has Bill Ready for Commons

Toronto, April 17.—Another effort is to be made to have the Ottawa Government declare race betting illegal. W. C. Good, Progressive member for Brant, is reported to have a bill ready for presentation which would make the recognized betting of to-day illegal.

In preparation for the coming fight, pamphlet appeals are being made to Government members stating that the immense sum of $75,000,000 was wagered last Summer at the racetracks, with consequent dislocation of legitimate business and hardship, and asking the Government to support a repressive measure.

GOLDEN MYTH WON FEATURE KEMPTON RACE

The feature race of the Kempton Park Easter meeting, was won to-day by Sir George Bullock's four-year-old bay colt Golden Myth, by Trevelyan out of Golden City. P. F. Heyburn's six-year-old Tresspass, the favorite, finished second, and J. Bancroft's rank outsider, Ring True, four-year-old bay colt by White Knight out of Mirobel, finished third. Fourteen horses ran.

J. McCormack Improved.

New York, April 17.—John McCormack, the tenor, ill from a serious attack of pneumonia, continued to improve to-day, his physicians announced.

POLICE FIND LAW FULLY OBSERVED

First Closed Sunday for Many Years Yesterday

Influence Was Felt in Restaurant Meals

The quietness of Sunday was further accentuated yesterday by the operation of the Lord's Day Act, which is now being enforced. With one exception every place of business barred by the law was closed; the exception being Buller's Newstand, at the Canadian Pacific Dock, Mr. Buller having obtained the permission of Mayor Marchant to remain open for certain classes of business. Drug stores remained open for two hours in the morning, and a similar period in the evening for the sale of medicinal supplies only, and did not sell other articles.

Meals Minus Papers.

Restaurants remained in operation, but excluded the sale of other supplies except food at their tables. The accustomed paper was eliminated, and no tobacco could be obtained. Restaurants took a few scattered tourists around the sights of the city. Guests at the city hotels found that they could not buy their usual Sunday paper or tobacco.

Trade Passes Outside.

The outlying stores in other municipalities did a roaring trade in papers and tobacco, the newstands in the municipalities of Oak Bay, Esquimalt and Saanich profiting by the city's action. Queues formed at one of the Oak Bay stores close to the city.

Crepe Hung Out.

Crepe was hung out in several places, one Government Street store making a feature of this sign of sadness.

The Chinese stores of the city were all closed. Chief of Police Fry stated to The Times to-day that he had not heard of a single infraction by any class of business.

Refused Advantage.

Some comment was raised over the fact the Buller's news stand was open, but it developed that Mr. Buller had special permission from the Mayor and Commissioner. "My restaurant and baggage room were open," stated Mr. Buller, "and I sold The Colonist; also the Seattle Sunday paper, but I did not sell tobacco. I did not wish to take advantage of the other fellows who were closed. Some of the travellers on the boats were very hot over my refusal to sell tobacco, but there, what can you do?"

Police Garagemen.

An unexpected feature of the day was the arrival at the police station of motor cars, the owners of whom found that their favorite garage was shut for the day. The police were asked to take care of these cars, one for a period of some forty-eight hours.

Tourists Are Warned.

Tourists arriving on the American boats brought word of a notice in the San Francisco papers warning travellers that "Victoria Has a Blue Law."

JAPANESE-CHINA CONFERENCE ENDS

Discussion Started Last August Is Broken Off

Japan Sends Troops to Replace Siberian Force

Tokyo, April 17.—Japan has instructed her delegates to withdraw from the Dairen conference with representatives of the Siberian Government at Chita.

The ground for withdrawal of the Japanese, it was said, at the Foreign Office to-day, was that the Chita Government made proposals in reply to Japan's notification of the date for evacuation of Siberia, which upset the agreement reached regarding the protection of lives and property and the adoption of the open door policy.

In consequence of Japan's decision, the Government is sending a staff of the Eighth Division with a brigade of infantry, a regiment of cavalry, field artillery and a battalion of engineers "to replace the troops now stationed in Siberia," according to an official announcement to-day.

London, April 17.—The Japanese Foreign Office has announced the breaking up of the Dairen conference, says a Tokyo dispatch to The Times.

The Dairen conference between representatives of the Far Eastern Republic of Siberia and Japan opened in August of last year. It has been reported on the verge of breaking up several times, due to the differences of opinion as to the conditions under which the Japanese troops in Siberia should be withdrawn. Heavy fighting between the Japanese forces and those of the Chita Government have been reported recently.

TO REPRESENT CANADA.

Ottawa, April 17.—W. A. Wilson, Regina, and A. T. Charon, St. Hyacinthe, Que., have been selected as Canadian delegates to the meeting of the International Institute of Agriculture, which is to open in Rome May 8.

Allied Leaders to Declare Attitude on European Pact

Meeting Called By Italian Premier Following Announcement Russia and Germany Had Signed Agreement; Development Affects Course of Conference

Genoa, April 17.—A treaty between Germany and Russia was signed at Papallo Sunday, the signers being the Foreign Ministers of the two countries, George Tchitcherin for Russia and Dr. Walter Rathenau for Germany. The treaty nullifies the Brest-Litovsk Treaty and re-establishes full diplomatic relations on an equality basis. The nations mutually cancel all war claims, as well as claims arising from the nationalization of property.

The treaty signed yesterday, it is stated, represents the conclusion of negotiations begun many months ago.

This action by delegates to the Genoa Conference in meeting independently and negotiating a treaty outside the scope of the conference itself is pointed to as establishing a striking precedent for the nations who are participating in the discussion of the Russian problem here.

URGES EASTERTIDE MESSAGE OF FAITH

Calgary Board of Trade Appeals for Effort

Seeking to hasten a return of normal prosperous times, which is the opinion of the Calgary Board of Trade will result from achievement rather than mere lapse of time following the war and considering that the principle of economy in public affairs and in public business is a basic factor of prosperity, and this increase of production following the co-ordination of individual and organized effort can and will ensure such result, the Calgary Board of Trade asked the Victorian Chamber of Commerce to urge upon the Municipal, Provincial and Federal Governments the points outlined in the following resolution:

"That this Board places itself on record as favoring a nation-wide policy to be advocated privately and publicly by individuals, associations and governments of increased production of essentials coupled with greater forthright in economy by every citizen demanding and giving an honest day's work for an honest day's pay and by greater prudence in the expenditure of private and public monies to the end that all shrewd citizens and in our industrial enterprises which will increase the already burdensome public debts be curtailed, except in so far as may be absolutely necessary in the public interest."

The Board is further of the opinion that the early return to normal conditions also depends upon "faith in our fellow citizens and in our institutions and Governments, and for the attainment of this object the Board accepts and earnestly urges that a policy of actual co-operation be encouraged by all so as to stimulate individual activity and lead to confidence in the achievement of general prosperity."

The Board is further of the opinion that the early return to normal conditions also depends upon "faith in our fellow citizens and in our institutions and Governments, and for the attainment of this object the Board accepts and earnestly urges that a policy of actual co-operation be encouraged by all so as to stimulate individual activity and lead to confidence in the achievement of general prosperity."

LOUISIANA TOWN CLEARED OF THUGS BY CITIZENS

Haynesville, La., April 17.—Persuaded to wait until the town they were after had been identified by his alleged victim, a mob variously estimated at 300 to 500 which surrounded the Haynesville jail last night, on taking Ralph Coleman, an inmate in the assault and robbery of Tony Pierce, left 100 of its members at the jail and started on a "cleaning" of Haynesville.

GIVE FIGURES FOR ST. LAWRENCE PLAN

Deep Waterway Proponents Point to Great Business

Vast Possibilities in Central Part of Continent

Toronto, April 17.—A Washington dispatch to The Globe says: Shipping figures show that the total tonnage moved on the Great Lakes last year was $5,000,000; from Atlantic ports, $0,000,000; Pacific ports, $0,000,000; Gulf Coast, about $5,000,000, and rivers and canals, 25,000,000 more.

"This means that almost as much tonnage is moved on the Great Lakes as on all other American waters and more than on our three coasts," says the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association; "and this is done despite the crippled condition of the St. Lawrence. With a seaway via the St. Lawrence, the Middle West will develop more water-borne commerce than all the rest of the world. Opponents of the St. Lawrence may say this heavy low-class freight is the reason, but in saying so they admit the need of water transportation for low-class freight can not afford a long rail haul."

MANY MOTORISTS TO MAKE TOUR

About 150 Are Expected at Inaugural Run of Ferry

Between 100 and 150 American motorists will make up the first party to come through on the Anacortes-Sidney ferry, it was stated in a letter from the Victoria and Island Development Association, read before the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at luncheon in the Hudson's Bay store dining room to-day. The excursion is to be held on April 26, and a representative gathering from the American side will attend. The Chamber of Commerce will co-operate in their entertainment it was decided, and will also make the necessary arrangements for the excursion. The excursionists are to be entertained at a luncheon at the Empress Hotel, it was stated, and no stone is to be left unturned to make the first visit agreeable to the guests. Some 35 cars will be in the party.

Post Office Inspector. In a letter from Dr. S. F. Tolmie, received by the Board, in connection with the removal of the office of post office inspector from this city, the member for Victoria stated that it would be necessary to wait until after the House had prorogued before taking action on this question, as the compilation of information relative to the subject would take time. The Board was assured, however, of every effort to have the matter righted.

A request from the Toronto Board of Trade, asking co-operation in working for the removal of the surcharge on freight, due to a check on the local organization will work to that end.

Two communications were read from the Oak Bay Council, the first endorsing the action of the Chamber on the Esquimalt Drydock matter and the second endorsing a cheque for $200 to aid in defraying the expenses of the Chamber delegate.

Sooke Needs. A letter from the Sooke Development League, asking aid in securing the inauguration of the Sooke Harbour, at a cost in the neighborhood of some $20,000 to $30,000 was endorsed.

The cost, it was stated, could be spread over a large number of years, and the ferry would be a boon to the opening up of that district. The letter was passed to the Development Committee for action.

A second letter from the same source asked the support of the local Chamber in working for a twice daily service to Sooke on the Canadian National Railway, by means of gasoline cars, was passed to the railway committee for investigation and action.

Four Directors. The resignation of J. C. Pendray from the directorate was read, Mr. Pendray stating that he would be out of the city a great deal this summer. The resignation was not accepted, Mr. Pendray being urged to remain with the board. A similar recommendation was made in respect to Messrs. J. L. Beckwith and A. C. Flumerfelt.

The financial report showed a balance. On this point President J. H. Beary suggested that a budget should be instituted to take care of the financing of the work of the Chamber. The F. A. Chamber had an annual budget of $200,000. It was suggested that the budget be also adopted to aid in the work of the board.

J. A. Griffith presented a report of the Development Committee which showed that the farmers of the Island districts were appreciating the work of the Chamber committee in its endeavor to find markets for the products. Consumers and producers' meetings are planned, it was stated.

The date of the annual general meeting of the Chamber, it was decided will be May 2, when the election of officers will form the main item of the agenda. C. H. French, manager of the fur department of the Hudson's Bay Co., is to be asked to address the general meeting on Northern British Columbia.

HINTON SAYS P.G.E. MUST RUN EITHER EAST OR WEST

Prince George Connection to Add to Liabilities, He Thinks

New View of the Province's "White Elephant"

Calgary, April 17.—W. P. Hinton, who has just reached here from Victoria, B. C., was invited by the B. C. Government to investigate the business and traffic possibilities of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, which is owned by the British Columbia Government. This was the first time that a practical railroad man had ever been asked to report on the P. G. E. though the line has been under construction and in operation for the past ten years.

While Mr. Hinton would not disclose the gist of the report he presented to Premier Oliver before his departure, he intimated to the interviewer that the only possible hope the road had of securing traffic that might enable it to be operated successfully was for the line to be extended either eastward or westward from Quesnel instead of being constructed along the original grade, which was for the line to run through Prince George on the G. T. P.

Westward of Quesnel, across the Fraser River, is one of the finest ranching and dairying countries in the province. While the line to the east of Quesnel the immense mining properties at Bullion, Quesnel Forks, Bulkley, Keithly Creek, Barken and other famous camps could be tapped. Geologists' reports show that this country is tremendously rich in the more valuable metals though the machinery necessary for their successful development is of such a heavy nature that only by the advent of a railway line could the minerals be brought in.

"Neither line would prove more profitable than the proposed route up the Fraser to Prince George," Mr. Hinton stated. "Whether the line is built east or west from Quesnel, it is an easily be linked up with the Grand Trunk Pacific."

Forestry Car Welcomed Up-Island

Visits Shawinigan Lake and Duncan; Now at Chemainus

Large numbers of residents all over Vancouver Island have viewed the Canadian Forestry Association's forestry exhibition car during its present tour of the Island, and the officials in charge are delighted with the reception which has been accorded them.

G. Gerald Blyth, who manages the car, voices his thanks to the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway Company for the satisfactory manner in which the car has been routed over the Island. The car was at Shawinigan Lake Friday, Duncan on Saturday, and at Chemainus to-day.

At Shawinigan Lake on Good Friday practically all the inhabitants of the district, including Mr. Elford, mill owner, the directors of the Shawinigan Lake Athletic Association, and mill hands, visited the car. In the evening, through the courtesy of the S. L. A. A., the party gave a motion picture show in the Elford Hall, presided over by Colonel Wilmet, Major Cowan, of the B. C. Forest Service, spoke on behalf of the Canadian Forestry Association. A very interested audience listened attentively to the speaker and heartily applauded the beautiful and instructive films. About 150 to 200 persons attended.

At Duncan on Saturday a large crowd were on the platform awaiting the arrival of the Forestry Car. Many farmers had come in from a distance to see the car. Through the courtesy of Messrs. McIntyre and Waddell, proprietors of the Hotel Opera House, the party secured the use of it for an afternoon meeting, which was packed with Duncan's youthful citizens, who eagerly listened to Major Cowan's forceful talk. The children were urged to take the utmost precaution with fire when in the woods and a special Fire Film was shown.

The car will leave for Chemainus to-day, Ladysmith on Tuesday, and Nanaimo on Wednesday.

Consoling Landlady: "Now, don't you be down-hearted, dearie. You'll get over it. Why, look at me—I was left by three fellows, and I've had to bury a couple of 'usbands.'"—Tit-Bits.

TYPEWRITING HONOR GOES TO VANCOUVER

City Championship Won by Miss Marquart

Great Interest Shown in Tests Conducted Here

Agnes Louise Marquart, of the Success Business College, Vancouver, won the Victoria City speed typewriting competition here this morning. The contest was held in the Spratt-Shaw Business Institute, and there were thirty contestants, twenty-nine of whom were girls, and a boy of fifteen years of age, who made a good showing.

Miss Marquart gets the splendid silver cup and the gold medal presented by the Spratt-Shaw College. She wrote 1,307 words in the fifteen minute test and after deducting for penalties, her average was 82.4 words a minute. Ten points were deducted for each error, the Canadian rules applying in the contest.

Janet May Tully won the silver medal, making an average of 70.7 net words per minute.

Lillian Emily Maas, of St. Ann's Academy, won the Underwood Cup, operating an Underwood machine. Her average was 70.4 net words.

Alma Josephine Graber, of Spratt-Shaw School, won the Remington Cup, operating a Remington machine. Her average being 62.8 net words per minute.

Maryella Carr, of the Victoria High School, operating a Remington machine, won the accuracy prize, her average being 55.3 words per minute.

Miss Maas also won the one-minute championship. She wrote 197 words in one minute, thus giving her a total of 97 net words.

Champion Here. Fred, Jarrett, the Canadian Champion from Toronto, who came to Victoria for the contest, typed 1,301 words in the fifteen minute period. With penalties for errors deducted his average was 110 net words per minute.

A Plucky Competitor. A particularly plucky feature of a young woman's pluck and determination to write in the contest, despite all obstacles, was instanced in the case of Miss E. Muriset, of the Victoria High School, who, though recovering from an operation, and only released from the hospital Friday, showed a splendid showing. Miss Muriset was looked upon as a certain winner, but it was found that the machine on which she wrote was not properly tensioned for high-speed writing.

There was a large attendance of interested spectators at the competition. Some of the competitors were present, and others were still in the tutored class, but all made a very creditable showing. Former and present pupils of the Spratt-Shaw School, St. Ann's Academy, Success Business College of Vancouver and Pitman's Shorthand School, Vancouver, were among the contestants.

Accuracy the Test. James H. Beatty, manager of the Spratt-Shaw School in Victoria, gave a brief address in which he pointed out that it was not always the typist who made a big noise or who turned out 125 words a minute that proved to be the champion typist.

Record could only be made on accuracy, Mr. Beatty said. Therefore it was the duty of every typist to pay particular attention to that important factor in successful typewriting.

An announcement regarding the presentation of the prizes will be by the Spratt-Shaw School here.

Other Winners.

Next in order to the winners, the points made by some of the contestants were as follows: Glad M. Brown, net words per minute, 66.6; Chareta Hlek, 63.4; Florie Smethurst, 65.3; Phyllis Irene Gates, 61.6; Maud Evelyn Strong, 60.1; Margaret Hunkes, 60.2; Mildred Irene Pearson, 60.

ASKED TO AID CHIEF'S CONVENTION

Requests Chamber of Commerce to Help San Josef Settlers

The Chamber of Commerce was asked to-day to assist in entertaining the Police Chiefs' Association which will meet in Victoria June 28, 29, 30 when it is expected that police chiefs of most of the important cities of Canada will attend, many of them bringing their families.

At the last session of the Association in Montreal the Victoria representatives, backed up by civic organizations in Victoria, were successful in landing the 1922 convention for Victoria. The directors at to-day's luncheon decided to do everything possible to co-operate with the local department to make the visit of the police chiefs pleasant and instructive.

On the request for co-operation in entertaining the Police Chiefs' Association it was decided that all would be asked to lend their aid in making the convention of Police heads a successful one in this city. It was stated that the City Council has granted $1,000 to the entertainment fund for this purpose.

"We islanders can only prosper if we trade as far as possible among ourselves and any section that can be opened up to the main base is to the benefit of all concerned," said the City Council in asking the Chamber of Commerce to lend their support to the claim of the residents of the most northerly section of Vancouver Island that rapid road construction should be carried out there.

CashSUN AND RAIN
City; Crowds Visited It

London, April 17 (Canadian Press Cable).—The Easter holiday season in London has been marked by uncertainty, with intermittent sunshine and rain. While thousands of Londoners made haste from the great city to the country, the seaside and to the Continent, there was, on the other hand, a considerable influx of folk toward the big towns of the north of England. Some of the hotels have done quite a good business during the holiday, the recent reduction in their tariffs having doubtless helped to this end. As usual, there was an immense congregation at St. Paul's yesterday morning, where Dean Inge was the preacher. The services at Westminster Abbey, at the Temple Church, Southwark Cathedral and the Westminster Catholic Cathedral were also thronged.

One of the most picturesque church parades ever held takes place at such seasons as Easter and Whitsuntide, and yet, though the attendance is quite open to all who desire, this interesting event almost entirely escapes notice. In the grey and grim old Tower of London there is the little church of St. Peter ad Vincula. Macaulay described this church as "the saddest spot on earth," for in the centuries past it was the custom to bring here from the neighboring Tower Green the bleeding headless corpses of those who had just suffered at the hands of the executioner. Lady Jane Grey's mortal remains were thus treated.

IN VANCOUVERMan Seriously Injured; Four Others Hurt; Charges

Vancouver, April 17.—Five persons were injured in a double automobile accident at Lakewood Drive and Hastings Street yesterday afternoon. Owen Coyle, 2653 Union Street, who is one of those injured, was taken to police headquarters on a charge of driving to the common danger.

The injured are: John Cunningham, 2164 Union Street, who sustained serious scalp wounds, bruises and possible internal injuries when struck by Coyle's car as he stepped from a street car at Lakewood Drive and Hastings Street.

J. Kemp, 204 Glen Drive, who was taken into custody by the police on a charge of drunkenness, cut and bruised about the head.

A man whose name is believed to be McQueen, but who disappeared before the arrival of the police, face badly cut.

Owen Coyle, cut about the face, bruised and shaken. Kemp, Alexander and McQueen were passengers in Coyle's car, which, after striking Cunningham, ran into the street car and overturned.

According to the police, Cunningham with a friend, J. McElroy, with whom he is staying, stopped the street car at 5:25 p.m., when Coyle's car, driven at a high speed and bound east, struck him before he could reach the safety of the curb. Cunningham was hurled through the air and crashed heavily to the pavement. The auto, which kept on, then crashed into the side of the street car and turned completely over. The occupants "thrown to the pavement."

Cunningham, who was unconscious, was carried to a nearby store by witnesses of the accident, and after his injuries had received attention at the hands of a doctor, was conveyed to his home.

The other victims of the accident disappeared, and were later, with the exception of McQueen, located by Inspector H. Long and Constable P. McGreener. Police say that all the occupants of the auto had been drinking, but that Kemp was the only one whose condition warranted arrest on a drunkenness charge. The arrested men were given first aid at police headquarters.

Conductor N. McIver and Motorist J. Dougherty, who were in charge of the street car, stated that the auto was driven at an excessive speed, and that Cunningham's escape from instant death was miraculous, police say.

Coyle and Kemp will face the magistrate on Tuesday morning.

SAYS BARRIERS SET UP IN IRELANDCollins Scores Opponents of Dublin Government

Dublin, April 17.—In his speech at Naas, County Kildare, yesterday, Michael Collins charged the opponents of the Irish Free State Provisional Government with setting barriers against the onward march of the nation. He declared that Eamonn de Valera had adopted "methods of anarchy" because the people of Ireland were not willing to allow him to decide the treaty question for them. De Valera regarded this attitude of the people as an unforgivable sin, and for it they were to be deprived of their right to choose a government.

Valera's Views. Tullamore, Ireland, April 16.—Speaking here to-day, Eamonn de Valera said that if the electorate in Ireland accepted the Anglo-Irish treaty the people would be in the position they never were in before, as the Government in Ireland would have to use its power against the people of the people which rose to achieve the country's freedom.

"If there is another Easter week," De Valera added, "it won't be against a Maxwell (Major-General Sir John Grenfell Maxwell, former commander of the British forces in Ireland) and foreign soldiers. The people would be fighting against Irish soldiers."

A hailstorm raged while De Valera was speaking. Dublin, April 17.—The great event in Dublin Easter Sunday afternoon was the funeral of Lieut. Sweeney, who was "shot while attempting to escape" from the custody of the "eggheads" last Monday evening.

He had been in custody for an offence committed before the split in the "Irish Republican Army." Yesterday the dissentient section of the "army" gave Sweeney a public funeral. Five battalions of the Dublin Brigade formed a procession which wound its way from Mount Argus to Glasnevin Cemetery. The four miles of the route were lined by crowds of spectators. More than 3,000 men took part in the march and large contingents of women's organizations and Sinn Féin Boy Scouts participated.

In Sligo. London, April 17.—A dispatch to the Press Association from Carrick-on-Shannon says Arthur Griffith, guarded by armored cars and Free State troops, addressed a crowd in Sligo yesterday without interruption. There was an exchange of fighting between the opposing forces yesterday morning, the dispatch adds, and it was reported one Republican was killed and another Republican and one civilian were slightly wounded.

Died of Injuries. Dublin, April 17.—Frank Lawless, a Sinn Féin member of Parliament, who was recently accidentally injured, died yesterday.

Wounded. Belfast, April 17.—Gunnmen entered the home of an ex-soldier named Collins at Ramelton, County Donegal, Saturday night, took him outside and shot and seriously wounded him.

Invermay, Sask., April 17.—With a bullet in his leg and two masked bandits holding revolvers, the teller of the Royal Bank here, here shortly before midnight, was forced to open the safe at the bank here shortly before midnight, according to the story he related to the police.

Since then all the money has been recovered. A bag containing the silver coin was found near the back door of the bank, and the two men, armed with revolvers, and the robbers succeeded in getting away with nearly $200.

It is pleasant and nice to take, and relieves the cough or cold in a very short time and thus prevents bronchitis, pneumonia or perhaps consumption getting a foothold on their system.

I have tried different remedies, but I seem to get the best results from Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I have no difficulty in giving it to them as they like it. I always have at least a bottle in the house.

Price, 35c, and 60c, a bottle, at all dealers. Put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. (Advt.)

M.P.'S TO ASSEMBLE
AGAIN WEDNESDAY
Will Resume Debates After Easter Holidays

Ottawa, April 17.—(Canadian Press).—The Easter Holidays brought with them a brief period of quiet in political circles. Following the important statement on railways which was presented to an expectant and interested House by Hon. W. C. Kennedy, Minister of Railways, last Tuesday, a large percentage of members of the Government and of Parliament betook themselves to their homes. The Prime Minister, who has been tied to his office by numerous delegations when he was not in the House of Commons, seized the opportunity offered by the Easter holiday to run down to New York.

The House will sit again on Wednesday, when resolutions placed on the order paper by private members will be taken up. These are numerous this season, and if their movers are ready to proceed, they will probably occupy the House for the whole afternoon. There will be no evening sitting. Supply will be taken up if time permits.

Estimates of the Department of Railways should be the signal for an interesting debate based on the mass of information and statistics which the Minister placed before the House. The next item of interest on the sessional programme is the budget speech of the Minister of Finance. This will probably not be delivered for a couple of weeks at least. Mr. Fielding has announced that he will not be able to listen to representations in regard to the tariff after the end of this week.

ULSTER AND
DUBLIN OFFICIALS
HOLD DISCUSSION
Belfast, April 17.—Friendly communications are said to be passing between the Northern and Southern Governments with reference to the murder of Owen MacMahon and his three sons, who were killed during the disorders last month, and other matters. Questioned concerning a report published in a London newspaper that a Belfast man had been lodged with Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, accusing Belfast murders and declaring that the Provisional Government had demanded the arrest and trial of the accused men.

Col. Spender, secretary to the Ulster Cabinet, would neither confirm nor deny the accuracy of the report. Col. Spender said the Northern Government was only anxious that justice should be done without respect to the creed or position of the offenders, and that if Michael Collins, head of the Free State Provisional Government, had any evidence in the MacMahon case, the proper machinery existed for the vindication of the law.

SAY COAL COSTS
HAVE DROPPEDNova Scotia Miners Say Operators Have Advantage

Sydney, N. S., April 17.—That the actual cost to the Dominion Coal Company of coal loaded on cars at its pits in the Glace Bay district is now $1.38 per ton instead of approximately $5.25 as claimed by the operators, was the assertion made by Secretary MacLachlan of the mine workers at three big mass meetings in Glace Bay and Sydney yesterday. To substantiate his claim, Mr. MacLachlan produced a document which he declared to be an original cost sheet of the Dominion Coal Company and which he intimated had been obtained in an unorthodox manner from the company's files.

The question of coal costs in Cape Breton is a vital factor in the present wage differences between the British Empire Steel Corporation and its mine employees.

"We propose to get a living out of this industry or remove it from the hands of the people who have it now into the hands of those who can give us an assurance that we shall get it," said Mr. MacLachlan.

AGED MAN LOST
WIFE AND TOOK HIS OWN LIFE
Selkirk, Ont., April 17.—Seventy-five years old and unable to bear the thought of spending the rest of his life without the companionship of his sixty-nine-year-old wife, Wesley Fulson, of this place, tied a weight to his neck Sunday morning and threw himself into the creek near his house, dying in less than three feet of water. He had been bereaved the previous day.

To-day the aged husband and the wife he mourned so bitterly were buried together.

THAT MODEL COLONY.

After investigating all the details of the model colony scheme which a number of medical experts in chest diseases recommended should be established at Kamloops, the parliamentary committee of the Dominion House of Commons appointed by ex-Premier Meighen reported favorably. On this account there is no reason to suppose that the new committee selected since the advent of the King Administration would differ from its predecessor to any material extent. The Federal member for the Cariboo has interested himself in the original proposal which Mr. Henry T. Denison placed before the Dominion Government more than three years ago. It is this scheme that embraces the main essentials of after-care and sheltered employment. One prominent citizen of the Interior Capital has this to say of the project and he will find many supporters of his opinions in various parts of the Province:

"The battle against the white plague will be a very long drawn out one, it will be continued long after the returned veterans and their contemporaries have paid the last debt to nature. Therefore if Mr. Denison's ideas are incorporated in this scheme, and as the number of soldier cases dwindles the vacancies are filled with civilians, this health centre will take its logical place in the general campaign against tuberculosis. Even had there been no fear of war and therefore no soldiers suffering from this dread malady, any government would be well advised to add such an important institution as a link between the Sanatorium and civil life in the interests of conservation of life; because it has been reiterated again and again by the very highest authorities, that some link must be provided if adequate results are to be attained. The returned men have to-day the first claim, and this claim ought to have been recognized and met with the least possible delay; but we have also a very large number of civilians who are a dead weight to the country because of some form of tuberculosis and could be made partly self-supporting immediately if this health centre was available."

It would appear to be unthinkable that any individual who is in the full enjoyment of good health could offer an objection to a plan of this kind. None the less there are those who do their daily business with men who first went to the dry belt of this Province twenty years ago, in the hope that its peculiarly beneficial climatic advantages might assist them to regain lost energy and strength, who would still speak of tuberculosis in hushed whispers. It is a fortunate circumstance for the unhappy T. B. that the educational propaganda which has been distributed in recent years has done much to remove some of the old fallacies of popular apprehension. But the day seems still far distant when the greater majority of people will recognize that the tubercular subject who has been trained to understand his malady is not only not a menace to his fellow-men but a living educational factor in himself.

The time has gone by when climatic virtues were the sole assistants to medical aid in the treatment of tuberculosis. Only a small percentage of cases demand the arid atmosphere such as one finds in the long and narrow dry belt of the American continent. On that account it would be difficult to find more equitable conditions for one of these model colonies than those which are to be found within a very few miles of this city. Such a provision is vital to the eradication of the disease for the reason that the ex-sanatorium patient cannot go into the open labor market without grave risk of undoing all the good that has been done under treatment. Give him something to do of a profitable nature and he regains a measure of independence which is of benefit to himself while converting him into a producing member of the community.

GRANDSTAND PLAY.

Nobody expected that the delegates from Soviet Russia would go to Genoa in an ultra suppliant mood. Its Government has not retreated far enough to placard its defeat all over the world. Its representatives at the Conference could do nothing else but put on a bold front. It may be true that they are deceiving themselves by doing so; but the fact remains that this is the first real opportunity that Bolshevism in official status has had of rubbing shoulders with the form of government that seems to have worked pretty well for some time past and gives promise of fairly smooth running for some time to come. What is more natural than that they should want to seem what they know they are not? They have presented a very large bill; it looks imposing and seeks to convey some sort of an impression to the outside world which is better known to the Moscow Administration than anybody else. Even it knows that it has about as much chance of collecting as the San Marino Republic would have were it to present a similar bill. But it is part of the last dying kick of Bolshevism. It may even cause a break in the participating delegations, although it scarcely seems possible that Russia would be so foolish as to press claims that she knows perfectly well are ridiculous, at the expense of losing political recognition and advantages manifestly greater than a rouble payment of the magnitude indicated ever could confer. And since when has the golden rouble been of value to the Soviet? It used to classify gold as without worth. All it wanted was scrip. This is indeed the final confession of Bolshevism's defeat.

THE RIGHT SORT.

When Sir Clifford Sifton was addressing the Toronto Board of Trade the other day he gave voice to the following sentiments in respect of Canada's need to broaden her immigration programme:

"In Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Belgium, Galicia, Hungary, Bohemia, there are tens of thousands of hardy peasants whose forefathers for generations have been bred on the land, who know all about farming and stock-raising, who have never done anything but work from daylight until dark, and never expect to do anything else, who are anxious for a chance to better their conditions. They are the men to settle our north country."

The speaker was not talking without his book. One needs only to cast his mind back over the conditions which existed in Bohemia and Saxony during the piping times of peace, which now seem so far distant, to understand the kind of rural toilers that are to be found there. These are the men—and women too—who get up with the sun and go to bed after it has dropped out of sight. During the interval they work and sing and look to be about the happiest beings on the face of the earth.

Many of these formerly happy peasants are feeling the backwash of war and would be glad of the opportunity to hack their way to peace and contentment in a new world. These are not the agitators. They do not number nation wrecking among their complaints. All they understand is the gospel of hard work and good citizenship. Shall Canada stand on her hind legs and say we will have none of this so-called "riff raff" from Southern Europe? We think not.

FAIRLY QUIET.

Apart from the attempt on the life of Mr. Michael Collins the week end in Ireland appeared to pass off without any notable addition to the disturbances and killings which have marked events during the last few weeks. This unusual Easter tranquility is not the fault of Eamonn de Valera whose manifesto was couched in terms calculated to bestir even the most lukewarm of his adherents. But it suggests that the people themselves are not in sympathy with the programme which the "republicans" have inaugurated in the hope that their methods will influence the electorate on election day. Not even the reminder of 1916, or the gentle hint from radical headquarters, seemed to be sufficient to inflame the rebellious spirit. The moral that may be drawn from this is the promise of victory for the Free Staters when once the people have an opportunity to give their verdict on the settlement.

GOLD WITHOUT FIREARMS.

Whatever "strikes" may be made in the Cariboo during the next few months it is fairly safe to assume that those who are attracted by the lure of gold will not have to take any side arms to protect such property as they may acquire. It is true that two of the more "enterprising" type of prospector went thither equipped with the accoutrements of thirty years ago; but it did not take the R. C. M. P. very long to drop the gentle hint that these two could either surrender their "shooting irons" or listen to the sort of argument which a "mountie" can produce when occasion demands. Gold that is found will be found because its seeker has had the grit to work for it. Pokes will not change hands under the peculiar influence of a revolver's barrel. That sort of thing died before the camp opened in the Yukon.

NOTE AND COMMENT

It is becoming increasingly obvious that the Genoa Conference will have to be rounded off with a general parley on the subject of armaments.

Signature of a treaty between Germany and Russia is one more reason why everything should be done that will head both off the idea of a military alliance.

Some of the Northcliffe newspapers issued before the famous vote of confidence was taken and just to hand predict in hopeful terms the downfall of Mr. Lloyd George. The presiding genius of that section of the press had better sell the coffin which he has prepared for the little Welshman.

order, including three addressed by Eamonn de Valera at Wexford, in Queen's County and King's County, and one by Michael Collins in Kildare.
The telephone line to Sligo was interrupted, but reports from other centres said the meeting there was a most successful one.
When Michael Collins and his friends arrived in Rutland Square, Dublin, at midnight, shots were fired. The men who did the shooting were arrested.

Man Killed.
Belfast, April 17.—A bomb was thrown into the yard of St. Matthew's Chapel here to-day. No one was injured.
At Clough, County Antrim, an unidentified man who had taken refuge in the school building from pursuit by a police patrol was shot and killed by his pursuers as he was escaping from the building.

ALLIED LEADERS TO DECLARE ATTITUDE ON EUROPEAN PACT

this was speedily cut short by a declaration by the Russian Government that it accepted the terms, formerly declined, and the signing at Brest-Litovsk on March 3 of the treaty now superseded.

Dictated.
"As indicated, these terms were virtually dictated by the Central Powers. Although war indemnities were renounced, Russia agreed to resign all claims to Finland, Estonia, Livonia, Courland, Lithuania, Russian Poland and the Ukraine, to renounce all the Anatolian provinces to Turkey and to evacuate Russian Armenia.
This treaty was effective, so far as its continuing provisions were concerned, however, only so long as Germany remained in the war. With her defeat, Germany, in the Treaty of Versailles, agreed to accept the abrogation of the Brest-Litovsk and all other treaties entered into with the Maximalist Government of Russia, to recognize the full force of all treaties entered into by the Allied and Associated Powers with states which were a part of the former Russian Empire, and to recognize the frontiers as determined therein. It was advised that the powers reserved the right of Russia to obtain restitution and reparation on the principles of the Versailles Treaty.

DELEGATES AWAIT SOVIET'S ANSWERS

Attitude to Be Defined at the Genoa Conference

Genoa, April 17.—Easter Monday found the Economic Conference marking time while waiting for the Russian delegates to define their attitude toward the proposals for resumption of friendly relations between Russia and Europe.

George Tchitcherin, head of the Russian delegation, had telegraphed to Moscow for instructions, but his message had to be relayed through London because of inadequate communication from Genoa.
Leading Allied spokesmen said to-day it would be an exaggeration to refer to the situation, as some newspapers had done, as being a deadlock. Moreover, they said it would be incorrect to affirm that the Allies had presented an ultimatum to the Soviet delegates. The Russians, they said, merely had been asked to speed up their answers to various points, particularly concerning the question of pre-war debts.

It was pointed out to-day that if the broad lines of Russian settlement could be informally agreed upon by the leaders by the end of this week, then the conference would have accomplished the greatest object for which it was called, namely, a practical arrangement with Russia.

Currencies.
Discussing currency and banking, the financial experts to-day expressed belief that measures for currency reform would be facilitated if the spirit of co-operation among the central banks could be developed. One of the recommendations of the reports of the London experts at a permanent association for co-operation by the central banks, not necessarily confined to Europe, would provide opportunities for co-ordinating credit policy without hampering the individual freedom of the various banks.

Another clause in the London report was that "in each country the first step toward re-establishment of a gold standard will be the balancing of annual expenditures of states without the creation of fresh credits not represented by new issues."

Decrease in Value.
Some experts held that the impossibility of the balancing budgets was largely due to the constant decrease in the value of the currency which the governments collect in taxes. The rise in the general cost of running governments, measured by that depreciated currency. Therefore, some bankers have favored the proposition that currency should be established by some outside agency that would be entirely disconnected from government printing presses. It is admitted that difficulties would be encountered in any attempt to substitute such currency for the various national currencies.

DOCTOR DESCRIBED APPROACH OF DEATH

Indiana Physician Drank Poison by Mistake

Toronto, April 17.—The Mail and Empire publishes the following under date of Chicago:
Dr. Edward K. Newton died yesterday. He drank bichloride of mercury twelve days ago and knew after three days death would come soon. As a physician, he believed at first his life might be saved, but when the poison took a firm hold he knew there was not a chance and prepared for the end.

Dr. Newton was a prominent physician of Whiting, Ind. His brother, Dr. H. L. Newton, is connected with the South Shore Hospital. On April 4 he called his brother to the telephone.

"I have taken bichloride of mercury," he said. "I just took it. Perhaps we may save my life."
At the hospital a battle for life began. Dr. Newton explained it was an accident.

By Mistake.
"I had a patient coming early that morning," he said, "and I dropped two mercury tablets into a glass of water. I set it down and drew a glass of water to drink. I drank part of it when the telephone rang. I set it down to answer the phone. When I returned I drank the poison by mistake."

The poison is slow acting but deadly. Dr. Newton realized the fight would be won or lost in three days. He calmly described his symptoms day by day and recommended treatments. At the end of three days the symptoms showed death was certain.

THIEF BUSY AS PEOPLE WORSHIPPED

Calgary, April 17.—While the congregation was listening to Rev. Canon Gale's Easter sermon in St. John's Church Sunday morning, a sneak thief ransacked coats in the anteroom and got away with about $30. He told the police he had bought a meal ticket and paid for a week's room rent with part of the money.

They have been admitted to the conference upon an equality which is practically equivalent to official recognition; they have kept intact all their claims, without signing or conceding anything and their decisive success has been that the outcome of the conference now depends upon Moscow."

DAFFODIL TEA WILL BE LOVELY SIGHT

Beauties of Victoria's Gardens at King's Daughters' Show

Now that the holidays are over the attention of the public will turn to post-Easter events, the chief of these in the very near future being the Spring Flower and Daffodil Show, for many years an annual event held under the auspices of the King's Daughters and now about to be resumed on Wednesday next at the Empress Hotel. This is also Prime-rose Day and it is fitting that the primrose will be a special feature on Wednesday, and it is expected that the little maidens selling these emblems will find many patrons. Entries for daffodil and other exhibits should be sent in promptly, and it may be well to remember that this is not so much an exhibition where only super-excellence will compete for a place, but rather a tournament of beauty where all are begged to take part, making a lovely galaxy of what Victoria's Spring gardens can contribute even in a somewhat inauspicious season.

The work of the King's daughters deserves, and has earned, the sympathy and support of all citizens, and the members ask for a very real and active interest in Wednesday's undertaking. For upwards of twenty-five years this beautiful band of women has maintained its members and continued its quiet and inconspicuous service in the best interests of humanity and of human fellowship, and setting the zeal of dignity and success upon all their undertakings. The King's Daughters' Hospital at Dunsmuir, and the lunch and rest room maintained for girls in factory or business in Victoria and open daily, are outstanding examples of their aims and achievements. For only once a year does the order come before the public asking the sanction and support, and it invariably receives the encouragement and kindness it hopes for.

Will Sing at To-morrow's Cabaret

Amid all the rejoicing and holy spirit engendered by Easter, the claims to remembrance of the heroes who lie in Ross Bay cemetery were not forgotten by the Daughters of the Empire and representatives of many chapters in the city made pilgrimages to the soldiers' graves and laid on them a votive offering of Spring flowers. The I. O. D. E. plot was beautiful sight with its crosses filled with daffodils, lilies and other Spring flowers, while the Catholic portion of the cemetery also received the share of fragrant blossoms, this labor of love being undertaken by Mrs. Hallam, assisted by members of the Catholic Women's League on behalf of the I. ### JUBILEE PATIENTS WERE ENTERTAINED

Delightful Easter Programme and Tea at Tubercular Ward

Appropriate Easter music was rendered by the orchestra led by Mr. Tickler and comprising piano: M. Spencer, cello: Mr. Gregory, clarinet: R. Dyer, cornet: George Green, and trombone: A. H. Piggett. "Thos. Kelly sang a group of numbers, and was in excellent voice, and every item on the enjoyable programme was received with loud acclaim.

At the close of the formal part of the proceedings, the ladies of the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I. O. D. E., served a delicious tea.

NELSON CHAPTER, I.O.D.E., CONDEMNNS ARTICLES IN HEARST PRESS

Strongly objecting to a disparaging article on the British royal family and Princess Patricia appearing in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, the Kokanee chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, at its meeting yesterday afternoon passed a resolution condemning that publication for its action, says The Nelson News.

The Seattle P-I, as is commonly known, is one of the many publications owned or controlled by the Hearst press, whose sentiments are notoriously anti-British, it was pointed out. Many times in the past the I. O. D. E. Provincial and Dominion bodies have denounced the Hearst publications and the fact that they are allowed to circulate in Canada.

The sum of $25 was voted toward helping the Y. M. C. A. Women's auxiliary in its work. A donation was also made toward a life membership pin for Mrs. B. M. Hasell of Victoria.

It was announced that the University Players would present "Mr. Pim Passes By" in Nelson on May 22 under the auspices of the chapter. The players are students at the University of British Columbia.

THE LOVE PETAL

Another Big, Gripping Story by the Author of "A Gamble in Beauty," Which Recently Created Such a Sensation

By NANCIBELLE HALE

As she knelt on the wooden kneeling bench and listened to the low murmur of the priest's voice blessing the young couple before him, Neata's eyes filled with tears.

Nancy Lane had not forgotten to invite her to witness the marriage ceremony which was to make her Oscar's wife. The little bobbed-haired girl had shed her uniform for a wedding gown of white—satin it was, with lace about the neck and a veil of tulle was held to her small head by a band of wax orange blossoms.

The ceremony was long and the priest spoke so low that it was difficult to understand what he said, but the service was impressive and Neata was touched. While she knelt among the nondescript gathering of friends of the elevator girl and her truck driver lover, Neata breathed a prayer for their happiness. She hoped Nancy would no longer be compelled to "go to business"—that never again would she faint over the lever of the big cage in which she had spent her days, packed-tight in a corner to give room to unthinking, selfish shoppers.

The priest pronounced the benediction. They turned—man and wife—and the recessional music sounded triumphantly from the miniature organ.

Nancy smiled broadly as she came down the aisle and, when she saw Neata, she gave her a joyous nod.

A sharp twinge shot through Neata's heart. How gladly would she at that moment have exchanged places with Nancy. What heavenly bliss it must be to be claimed before the world by the man whom you adore and to whom you are most dear.

But the man she held precious beyond all things scorned her affection, came the bitter reminder. No greater insult could woman receive surely, than that offered her by Colin. She wilted herself—wondered if she had lost all self-respect.

With a start, she awoke to the fact that the other guests had departed. The church was empty. The only lights left burning were those on the altar and the flickering candles at the feet of the Saviour. She bent her head on her folded hands and uttered a prayer for herself.

"Make me brave," she prayed, "and, O Lord, grant me peace." She hesitated a moment and then half-shamed, as though making an undignified concession, she added "Bless him I pray Thee." The tears which had dimmed her eyes brimmed over.

She wandered about, not knowing where she would go. There was nothing to be accomplished at home—her mother and aunt were downtown. She knew not where. She was not in the mood to meet any of her friends. She felt that she could not assume the mask of gaiety to-day, her power of dissembling her grief and discontent had been taxed to the utmost. Reading had always been her comfort in distress. She had the ability of living in the characters of her books and thus forgetting her own ills.

The latest book out was "Main Street," which had received commendatory review. She would see if she could buy it at the bookstore on 33d Street, which she usually patronized. She took the east side subway down to Lexington Avenue and 33d Street and there she climbed to the street. Her steps lagged. She had no vitality—she felt listless, unresponsive to the sunshine, which was bright but failed to warm the earth. She walked for a few minutes and turned into the shop—a picturesque, delightful place in which there was a huge fireplace made of tile. Each side of the hearth was a comfortable chair in which lovers of books were welcome to loiter, selecting their choice volumes at their ease, undisturbed by the sweet-faced, motherly-looking woman who was proprietor of the place.

Neata asked for "Main Street," and receiving it, sat in one of the inviting chairs to look it over. She was a valued customer at the shop and often conversed at length with the owner who was talking with a sad-eyed girl whose pallor was accentuated by the two bright spots which burned feverishly on her cheeks.

The girl was little more than a child. She was fearfully thin—like fragile china. She left the shop tucking her books under her arm. Outside she entered a handsome limousine, and as she drove away her delicate, flowerlike face was pressed against the window of the machine, while she waved a sad farewell to the motherly figure in the doorway.

The woman's look of sorrow as she seated herself opposite Neata caused the girl to glance questioning at her.

"It is a sad tale—that of a girl who just went away," she said, with a movement of her head in the direction of the disappearing car. "It is one of the pages torn from the book of life in New York. We hear of such things vaguely, but when it is brought home to us—when we become intimately acquainted with one of the city's victims—it makes us realize the great need for charity and tolerance."

"Could I help the little girl?" Neata asked.

"No—she is beyond help," answered Mrs. Noel. "I will tell you her story as she told it to me. It will do no harm to let you know—she can be harmed no further, poor child!" She sat looking into the flickering flames and then continued:

"She was a poor child born of a drunken father, and her mother, who had been a bareback rider in a circus, died soon after her birth. She grew as such children grow—like weeds untended, thriving on filth and hard crusts.

"To the music of the hurdy-gurdy she learned to dance, and when scarcely sixteen she deserted the slums and became a member of the chorus of a burlesque show. Her beauty and grace soon attracted the attention of the manager of the theatre. She loved beautiful clothes and pretty trinkets and he was willing to purchase them for her. . . . if she paid the price.

"After a year or so she left her securing work in the show of a better kind. She became successful, and with her ability to earn more money came the desire to improve her mind. She met men of a higher class than those with whom she associated while in the burlesque chorus and she wished to understand their conversation. She began going to the public library and reading—it made little difference what she read. Naturally she had no means of knowing God from bad.

"One night she met a man of higher intelligence than any she had known—a man of compelling personality who instantly became attracted to her and, in drawing her out to speak

Paris, Ontario.—"For five years I suffered with pains in my back and from other troubles women often have. All of this time I was unfit for work and was taking the different medicines that I thought were good. I saw the advertisement in the papers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have taken it faithfully. I am now in good health and do all my own work. I recommend it to others and give you permission to publish this letter in your little books and in the newspapers as a testimonial."

—Mrs. D. CASSADY, Box 461, Paris, Ontario.

This medicine which helped Mrs. Cassidy so much is worthy of your confidence. of herself, discovered her wish for knowledge. He arranged to meet her again and brought her some books from his own well-stocked library.

At last we have you in our power. He was just thinking how much he looked like an elf, only that he was larger, when over the walls of the tower came hundreds of tiny green men—the Green Elves themselves. They ran over him like flies, all crying together: "Thou false one! At last we have you in our power!"

"He was married, though he seldom saw his wife—a selfish, egotistical narrow-minded woman. She would never divorce him, but he knew. She had married him for his money and position and she would never be persuaded to sacrifice the prestige which both gave her.

"There was only one answer to the problem. He furnished an apartment for the little chorus girls—lavished her with gifts and supplied her with books. He engaged a tutor for her and watched, with joy, the rapid broadening of her mind and the delight she took in her studies.

"One perfect year they passed—each was sublimely happy—and then the girl began to fade like some lovely blossom which, transplanted from the mire in which it strangely sprang to life finds existence impossible in a hothouse.

"He called in the city's most renowned physician but they cannot help her. She has tuberculosis and she says she can live but a few months. The man is wild with grief. He is sending her to Colorado. . . . she will leave to-morrow but she knows that she will never come back."

Neata had listened in throbbing silence.

"The poor little butterfly—broken on the wheel," she murmured gently. She was filled with immeasurable pity for this victim of tragedy, who must die alone, among strange, paid attendants.

But, as she left the shop, the woman's words again passed through her mind.

"One perfect year they passed—each was sublimely happy."

"What a life!—that enough to ask of life!" she pondered. . . . One perfect year.

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

THE LADY OF THE MISTY BLUE.

Part III.

If Peterkins had felt like a kitten before, when the Ogre stood him on the floor of the tower, he felt like a fly beside a giant, for the Ogre was tall as a tree and Peterkins was sure the castle must be as big as a mountain, or the Ogre could not get inside it.

"Well, what are you going to do with me?" asked Peterkins, who had now found he was able to speak. To his amazement, the Ogre did not reply, but burst into a loud laugh. But when he stopped he said: "You are the first one that ever was able to speak. The others were so frightened they fell on the floor trembling when they saw me. Aren't you afraid of me?"

"No," answered Peterkins. "You are the biggest creature I have ever seen. But one so big, of course, must be very brave. Now if you were only able to change yourself into a shape as small as I am, I might be afraid."

"Oh, you think I cannot change my shape," said the Ogre. "Well, I will show you I am very powerful in the magic arts. Now, watch me!"

The Ogre drew himself up to his full height and roared: "Hackety-peckety-zackety—Zim! I change my shape to suit my shape to suit my whim."

Peterkins almost fell backward, for there before him stood a man no larger than himself, dressed all in green from head to toe.

Peterkins was just thinking how much he looked like an elf, only that he was larger, when over the walls of the tower came hundreds of tiny green men—the Green Elves themselves. They ran over him like flies, all crying together: "Thou false one! At last we have you in our power!"

Peterkins stood looking on and wondering what this strange thing meant when one of the Green Elves jumped down from the shoulder of the man in green and said: "He was once an Elf like me, but he put himself in the power of the witch of the lake so that he might become an Ogre."

"We have been on the watch for a long time to take him prisoner, but until now he has stayed in the form he took when the old witch changed him, and over that form we had no power. But now he has changed to the form of a mortal and made the fatal mistake of wearing our colors and we can take him captive."

When the Green Elf had finished his story Peterkins, to his dismay, saw nothing of the other Green Elves or the man in green that had once been the Ogre. They were gone, and with the man in green went the magic charm, Peterkins feared, that could clear up the mystery of the Lady of the Misty Blue.

He ran to the tower windows and leaned far out, but all he could see was a tiny speck of green far down the castle wall, which he knew must be the last Green Elf hurrying after his brothers and their captive.

"Come back! Come back!" cried Peterkins, but the only answer was the echo of his own voice which sounded for all the world like: "Ha! ha!" "Ha! ha," as it rang through the trees.

They were gone and he must find his way out of the high tower. Perhaps the mysterious Lady of the Misty Blue could tell him about herself and how she happened to be in the power of the Ogre now he was out of the way, and with this thought in his mind Peterkins ran down the long flight of steep stone steps he saw at one end of the tower.

PUBLICITY CONFERENCE

Meeting in Tacoma April 29 to Discuss Tourist Trade.

A meeting of representatives from British Columbia, Washington and Oregon will be held in Tacoma on April 29 to discuss ways and means of joint publicity for attracting tourists to the Pacific Northwest. This decision was reached at last Friday's meeting of the Pacific Northwest Tourist Association directors held in Seattle, at which Alderman A. E. Todd and George R. Naden, of the Provincial Lands Department, were the Victoria delegates.

As no grant will be forthcoming from Washington this year, the executive faced the alternative of either abandoning the publicity work or securing Washington's contribution to the publicity fund by a State-wide canvass for private subscriptions. Oregon and British Columbia Governments contribute on the basis of Washington State's grant. It was therefore decided that such a canvass should be made in Washington.

Helen's father stiffened.

"And may I inquire," he asked, "who suggested that asking my consent to Helen's marriage was a mere formality?"

"Yes, sir," replied the young man. "It was Helen's mother."—Tit-Bits.

PLAGUE PRECAUTIONS TAKEN AT AUCKLAND

S.S. Niagara Was Given Close Attention on Her Last Visit at N. Z. Port

Dealing with plague precautions at Auckland, New Zealand, the Auckland Star prints the following interview with H. R. McKenzie, deputy chairman of the Auckland Harbor Board, relative to the precautions taken in the berthing of the Canadian-Australasian liner Niagara on her last call at the New Zealand port:

"Seeing that the Auckland Harbor Board has been concerned in the matter, I simply want to clear the officers of the Board. The Niagara was berthed at the Queen's wharf owing to her great beam, it being impossible to work the vessel's hatches at a wharf with fender pilings with the additional floating logs four feet wide. To berth the Niagara at such a wharf would throw her exactly 7 ft. 9 in. off the wharf. Then again some time ago as a result of a conference with Dr. Frengley, of the Health Department, permission to berth the Niagara at the Queen's wharf. The Board took special precautions when it was found necessary to berth her at the wharf. We detailed two officers of the Board to supervise the placing of the rat discs and the tarring of the lines, and in addition Capt. Sargent, the harbormaster, personally watched the way in which these precautions had been completed. The mooring lines received a fresh coat of tar both morning and evening, and a man was told off to watch the ship all the time she was at the wharf. Three men working in shifts of eight hours kept a watchful eye on the Niagara. These precautions are being carried out with all ships alongside of the wharves, and every assistance is given to the Health Department to see that the regulations are strictly carried out. The Harbor Board officers always advise the medical officer of health of any failure to carry out such precautions, and we are thoroughly satisfied that there was no negligence of any description regarding the berthing of the Niagara. Great difficulty is experienced at Auckland in keeping the rat guard firmly attached to mooring lines owing to a large rise and fall at the tide, which necessitates constant heaving and slackening away of the lines. As an additional preventive a strip of tarred canvas a foot wide is placed across the ship's end of the gangway. All these regulations are not our regulations, they are framed by the Health Department, and we are simply taking the trouble of seeing that they are strictly enforced."

TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF TITANIC DISASTER

Halifax, N. S., April 17. — Ten years ago Saturday, 1,601 lives were lost with the sinking of the White Star liner Titanic, off the Grand Banks of Newfoundland.

OPEN NAVIGATION ON GREAT LAKES

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., April 17.—The steamer Glenorchy, reports this morning by wireless that, in company with four other vessels, she is working up through the ice in Mud Lake. Good progress is being made under favorable weather conditions. The vessels are expected at the Soo this afternoon, thus opening navigation for the season.

The Hercules has been lying idle here since the completion of the Ogden Point breakwater, and it was recently planned to fit her out to carry lumber and coal to England. There is no marine work going on in Europe in which the Sir John Jackson Company is interested, where the Hercules could be utilized, and consequently, the proposal to send her to London has been dropped for the time being.

The Hercules is now overhauling at Yarrow's, Ltd., and after being cleaned and painted will be laid up in Esquimalt harbor.

William Knight, engineer and breakwater expert, who was associated with the construction of the Ogden Point breakwater, will leave shortly for England to take over new drydock work with the Sir John Jackson Co.

"Australia," he said, "is worthy of a service of steamers capable of making the run between London and Fremantle in twenty days instead of the thirty days now occupied even by the 'Bay' class. Present trade conditions would make this too costly, but I look forward with confidence to such a service being a practical possibility within the next few years. It is no matter for congratulation to Australia that her mail communications are few and slower than they were thirty years ago, but on the other hand, the world upheaval must be accepted as the sole cause of today's unsatisfactory conditions."

"Shipowners themselves are not to be blamed. They are business men and would undoubtedly provide a better service if trade conditions indicated even reasonable prospects of a fair return on the large capital it would involve. It is distressing for men who have spent their lives in the shipping business and among ships to see so many fine vessels lying idle and so many officers and men unemployed."

"In my opinion, however, the only method of assisting a revival in the shipping trade is to secure substantial world-wide reductions in port dues, fuel and other store prices, repairs and maintenance costs generally; but again, all these matters hinge upon labor costs, as do the costs of the merchandise which provides freight for the ships."

In conclusion, Mr. Larkin said he thought that the world's shipping industry is in a nutshell, they must have a world-wide reduction in port dues, repairs and maintenance costs, and a "canny" should be cut out.

P. A. S. Franklin, President of the International Mercantile Marine Co., after inspecting the new steamship Majestic, called New York City, said the ship far exceeds all expectations. The public rooms, deck spaces and accommodations generally are exceptionally good. The Majestic has made most satisfactory speed trials and in favorable weather it is fully expected she will exceed twenty-five knots an hour although it is not the intention to press for speed on the earlier voyages of the steamship. The Majestic will be placed in the White Star Line service between New York, Cherbourg and Southampton and is scheduled to make her maiden voyage from Southampton on May 10 and from New York May 20 and thereafter sail every third week, the famous Olympic and the new Homeric sailing the intervening weeks.

The programme for France will include a stay in Paris, which promises the utmost interest, for the arrangements are being directed by La Rionville Francaise, of which Marshal Foch is president, and Prince Roland Bonaparte the vice-president. It is through their interest and influence and by the good offices of Madame Bous de Jouvanel, the secretary general, that the University of Paris will extend the hospitality of the colleges during the stay in Paris.

It is also confidently expected that a civic reception will be accorded to the visitors this year by the Lord Mayor of London in the Guildhall with luncheon and address by the Lord Chancellor of England, Lord Birkenhead.

Athletics Furnish Surprise in Majors

Connie Mack's Youngsters Have All Teams Scared In American League; Both St. Louis Clubs Are Going Well; Giants Are Hitting Hard and Are Not Bothered By Pace, But Yankees Are Floundering About; Await Warm Weather

New York, April 17.—The major league baseball season is still very young and some of the teams apparently have not hit their stride, but at the end of the first week's schedule Saturday Cleveland in the American and St. Louis in the National League held undisputed possession of first place. St. Louis and Philadelphia were tied for second place in the junior league, while the Giants and Philadelphia occupied second and third place in the National.

Last year in the National League the Giants, Brooklyn and Pittsburgh had things to themselves. The St. Louis Cardinals bobbing up in winning form too late in the season to be considered seriously. This year, however, St. Louis seem to be in the race from the start with good pitching, heavy hitting and sensational all-around play. Pittsburgh has made a poor start, but their pitching staff is good and they have plenty of heavy hitters. The Phillies give promise of making things interesting and Chicago is not to be despised.

Kelly Punches One.

New York, April 17.—George Kelly, 1921 National League home-run champion, tallied his first 1922 circuit drive in the Giant-Braves game yesterday at the Polo Grounds. His wallop was made off Dick Rudolph, one of the old hurling masters making a comeback. Dick, who once made history with George Stallings' "Miracle Team," seemed destined to succeed when he weakened after holding the Giants at bay for six innings.

Fuhrer, the exiled Yankee, rejoined his team for a day at Baltimore, and hit a homer in an exhibition game against Baltimore. The White Sox won the first extra-inning game of the major league season from Detroit, 7 to 6. Washington, in losing to the Athletics, made six errors. Pitcher Harris fanned eight Washington batters. In defeating the Phillies at Brooklyn, Reuther held them to eight scattered hits, and added to their agony by collecting four hits himself, one a three-bagger, in four trips to the plate.

Giants Are Going Well.

Notwithstanding their three defeats by the base-hit crazy Giants, Brooklyn is hitting some themselves, and with better work from the pitchers will go nicely. Smith and his new underhand style gives promise of good things for Brooklyn. The Giants look best of all, but they can not afford to loaf. The big surprise in the American League is the eager work of the Athletics. Connie Mack may have gathered another great organization of youngsters, and the St. Louis Browns, not to be outdone by the Cardinals, have hung out a danger signal. They have pitchers and always have had heavy hitters. Washington is well organized. Cleveland will always be in the running; indeed, they seem most likely of the lot.

Yankees Going Slowly.

The Yankees have not been hitting any too well, but with a squad of great pitchers they will go better in the warmer weather. Detroit, Chicago and Boston got away slowly and the season is too young to pass judgment on them.

National League.

Cincinnati, April 17.—Pittsburgh won from Cincinnati yesterday, 4 to 3. The hitting of Duncan and Maranville and great fielding plays by Maranville and Tierney were the features.

Batteries—Cooper and Gooch;

Rixey, Gough and Hargrave.

Kelly Was Hitting 'Em.

New York, April 17.—George Kelly's rampant Red bird was doing off Dick Rudolph yesterday after Dick had pitched nicely for six innings. It was Rudolph's first start in two years and the Giants won, 5 to 2.

Batteries—Rudolph and Gowdy;

Nehf and Smith.

Reuther Wins Another.

Brooklyn, April 17.—Reuther pitched Brooklyn to a 10 to 2 victory yesterday. Wheat made a sensational one-handed catch, robbing King of a home run.

Batteries—Smith, Bohan and Henline;

Reuther and Deberry, Taylor.

Cards Still on Top.

St. Louis, April 17.—Branch Rickey's rampant Red bird was the first place by virtue of a 3 to 2 victory over the Chicago Cubs yesterday afternoon.

Batteries—Jones and O'Farrell;

Sherdel and Almsmith.

American League.

Washington, April 17.—The Philadelphia Athletics won their opening game of the season with the locals 5 to 1 yesterday, largely through the

Over Thousand Amateurs to Play Baseball in Province This Year

Heads Hold Meeting in Vancouver

The annual meeting of the British Columbia Amateur Baseball League which was held in the Vancouver Hotel, Vancouver, on Saturday evening, was one of the largest and most enthusiastic baseball gathering ever held in this Province, according to Walter Lorimer, the local representative, who returned to Victoria yesterday.

When President R. M. Miller called the meeting to order delegates from eight leagues were in attendance, representing 38 teams or about 850 players. In addition to this number the league officials will also look after the Sunday School League of Vancouver, which is divided into senior, intermediate and junior divisions and embraces 22 teams.

The leagues that were represented and their delegates were: Westminister, Oscar Neilson; New Westminister, A. E. Tennant and E. Brethour; Twilight League, Vancouver, J. Baker and J. V. Jones; Terminal League, Thos. Davies (ex-Victoria Fire Chief) and R. Goodall; Fraser Valley, J. C. Bailey; Howe Sound, E. P. Perry; Victoria Senior League, Walter Lorimer; the Upper Island League was represented by proxy, but have not yet decided to affiliate, and Vancouver Sunday School League.

Victoria Admitted.

The applications of Fraser Valley

Howe Sound and Victoria for affiliation were received and granted, the delegates giving the new leagues a hearty welcome.

The annual reports were presented and that of the treasurer showed the league to be in a healthy condition financially, a substantial balance being on hand in the bank.

Considerable discussion took place over a proposed amendment to the by-laws, which will now provide that no player can be transferred from one team to another after July 15 and also that he must take a playing part in three games after his transfer in order that he may qualify to play in the championship games.

It was also announced that ex-Mayor Gale, of Vancouver, had presented a trophy to be contested for and held by the amateur champions of Canada. This trophy will rank with the Mann Cup in lacrosse and the Allan Cup in hockey.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Hon. President, J. H. Senkler, K. C. Vancouver; President, R. M. Miller (President, Vancouver Senior Club); Vice-President, D. MacKenzie, New Westminister; Second Vice-President, Geo. Beck, Victoria; Secretary-Treasurer, G. R. Morrow, Vancouver.

All the delegates had a few words to say on the outlook for the season, and all expressed the opinion that their leagues were in for a bumper season.

UP-ISLAND SOCCER PLAYERS IN DUTCH

Ladysmith and Wellington Footballers Refused to Go to Vancouver

Vancouver, April 17.—Certain football players of Ladysmith and South Wellington clubs are to be asked to explain their absence from the Upper Island All-Star lineup which played the Mainland All-Stars at Athletic Park on Good Friday. B. C. P. A. officials are much disturbed at the tenor of a wire received on Thursday morning which stated that players from these clubs would not cross the Gulf for the holiday trip unless guaranteed $5 in lieu of wages they would lose.

For several hours the wires went back and forth and finally a Nainaimo official wired that the team would play. With that the officials here were forced to be content. There was no time to do anything else, if the public were not to be misled.

It was developed that Nainaimo City United team came over, but that none of the Ladysmith or South Wellington men did. "It seems nothing more or less than a deliberate attempt to hold us up," said Vice-President F. D. Campbell. "We have unanimously agreed that a rigorous investigation shall be made."

Another matter which the B. C. F. A. has been asked to delve into is the statement of Harold Roberts, of the Veterans, that certain players of that club have accused him of "letting in team-mates down" in a recent cup-tie with St. Andrews.

DICK KERR SOCCER TEAM TO VISIT U.S.

Ladies' World's Champions Will Meet Famine Eleven in America

Rochester, N. Y., April 17.—Dick Kerr's well known women soccer team will pay a visit to the United States this summer or fall, according to Frederick Clark, English soccer manager and coach. Mr. Clark, who is here scouting for several of the larger soccer teams in the eastern part of the United States, also declared that several of the men's well known soccer teams would invade the States within the next few months.

The team of women soccer players was organized in England during the war and has defeated several prominent men's teams in England. Recently the women won the European women's championship, defeating the French team at Paris by a score of 3 to 1.

Miss Brown (to Jones, who has claimed the first dance): "You're quite an early bird, Mr. Jones!" Jones (making an attempt to be gallant): "Ah! By Jove, yes! And I've caught the worm, too!"

Taylor and Wilson Win Great Victory

Local Golfers Defeated Dave Black and Reg Symes In Special 36-Hole Match By 5 Up and 4 to Play; J. A. Yellowlees and Bob Bone Are Playing In Finals To-day For British Columbia Amateur Title

Phil Taylor, the Oak Bay professional, and Biggerstaffe Wilson, low man in the qualifying round of the B. C. amateur golf championship at Berquitham on Friday last, were returned victors in a special match at the Shaughnessy links, Vancouver, yesterday, over Dave Black, the Shaughnessy pro, and Canadian pro. champion, and Reg Symes, a former British Columbia amateur champion. The local pair won by five up and four to play, the match being for 36 holes.

The match was witnessed by a great gallery and the local people who were in the following say that Taylor played brilliant golf. His playing was much above that of Black, who is usually unsteady when it comes to the main contention for the P. N. A. open championship which is to be staged at Colwood in June.

Montreal, April 17.—It will be compulsory for all players in the Eastern Canada Amateur Lacrosse Association to be registered with and to have annual cards of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, it was decided at the annual meeting of the association on Saturday.

Another new regulation brings the coaches of the teams under the jurisdiction of the referees.

Cornwall, which dropped from the league about the middle of last season, will be back in the league this year, along with the Glens, of Ottawa, M.A.A. and Nationals, this city, will comprise the five-team league.

England Looks Forward To a Great Golfing Year

London, April 17.—(Canadian Press)—There is every evidence that the 1922 golfing season will be no less interesting than that of last year, when teams of United States amateurs and professionals make organized attempts to annex our championships.

Hutchinson, of Chicago, who won at St. Andrews last year, is expected to return to this country in the near future, in order to defend his title on the open championship event at Royal St. George's, Sandwich, in June. Hutchinson, it is expected, will be accompanied by Walter Hagen, holder of the United States professional golfers' championship, and Jim Barnes, and no doubt a dozen other prominent golfers from the States will follow later.

A survey of the Princes course, which is expected to be the most event of importance in the year, is a probable result of this survey. The claim is put forth that this course is in a probably longer one in the world. The actual measurement showed that from the very back tees the outward half of the course measured 2,369 yards, while the inward half measured 3,686 yards, or just 15 yards over four miles for the entire course.

Following the Ladies' Championship, the most event of importance is the Amateur Championship at Prestwick, scheduled for the early part of June. William Hunter, the present champion, will, it is hoped, be able to obtain release from his business ties in the United States for long enough to make the trip to this country to defend his title.

Four of the most distinguished of British golfers—Harry Vardon, South Herts; Ted Ray, Oxford; Alister Mitchell, of North Portland, and James Bradbeer, of Porters Park will take part in matches over the Porters Park at Radlett on May 21.

Drought Affected Course.

An unexpected difficulty has arisen in connection with this year's open championship at Royal St. George's, Sandwich. The Royal St. George's course was one of those that had suffered so severely from the drought last year and the recovery has not been so thorough or speedy as had been hoped for by the club authorities. In many cases the greens have given much cause for complaint, and it is acknowledged that nothing short of very good fortune will enable the club to get its links into the first-class condition in time for the championship.

However, all possibilities and probabilities have been taken into account by the championship committee and an extraordinary schedule of hand signals has been adopted to make the most of the situation. The Royal St. George's course not improve sufficiently within the next two months.

Much Controversy.

One of the several causes of spirited controversy that has prevailed in golfing circles throughout Great Britain during the past Winter season, is the question of the elimination of this had to do with the size of the golf ball and through tests which are to be conducted by various bodies, it is hoped, soon be disposed of the vexed question. The Royal and Ancient, St. Andrews, will hold competitions with experimental balls on Thursday, May 3, the day following the competition for the Spring Medal, and will invite members of other clubs at St. Andrews to hold their tests and the Royal St. George's Club, Sandwich, will hold one competition in connection with its Easter meeting and possibly another at the time of the Royal St. George's Cup Competition in May.

An interesting series of mechanical tests with golf balls of various makes was conducted at Wimbledon recently. The test was made against a strong wind and a machine consisting of a revolving arm to which a club was attached was used for driving the ball in the tests. The machine was wound up and on a clutch being released the arm swung the club on to the ball at a speed calculated as nearly as possible to the drive of the average golfer. Various makes of balls were used, including those of the new weights now laid down by the Rules of Golf Committee for

"PAY DAY" BRINGS CHAPLIN BACK

"Courage" Is Also Royal Offering This Week

There is only one complaint to make about "Pay Day," the latest Charles Chaplin picture which opened a run at the Royal Victoria Theatre to-day. Its two reels should be ten. There is only one Chaplin. Any one doubting it need only see "Pay Day." The distinctiveness of art is something that can be acquired neither by study or work. It is a matter of ability and instinct, and Chaplin is the one person who can blend the fine art of pantomime with a serious men that makes the whole impersonation irresistibly funny.

Don't ask what "Pay Day" is all about. It hasn't a plot like "The Kid." It isn't supposed to, but it's just as funny. Even a sphinx would break into a coy giggle if it could see Charles hanging on to a long chain of sausages, nonchalantly reading his Evening Gazette under the impression that he is swinging along on a crowded street car.

It's Chaplin's picture. He wrote the story. He directed the making of it and he stars in it. Apparently it would seem that when you've said Chaplin you've said all that needs to be said about a Chaplin comedy. It's more of a truism in this case than ever because in addition to Charles, brother Sydney is in the cast, too. But the players also include Edna Purviance and Mack Swain, who are splendid foils for the star's stunts. The comedy brings the inevitable reflection that "Pay Day" comes only too infrequently.

Admirers of strong dramatic action will find much to satisfy them in "Courage," the Sidney Franklin production, which is shown on the same programme.

Naomi Childers, the beautiful emotional actress, is the featured player appearing in a role which gives her a wide range of opportunity for her talents. As Jean Blackmore, the devoted young wife whose innocent husband is snatched away from her by the long arm of the law, she interprets a part that cannot but shame every weakling who sees it on the screen.

Blackmore, from behind prison bars, secretly directs his plucky wife in the conduct of a great industry which helps his country win a war. The real murder for whose crime he was sentenced, makes a deathbed confession, and a dramatic reunion turns the romance of their son into a happy one, results.

Sam de Grasse, in the role of the husband, gives a splendid characterization. Others in this exceptional supporting cast are Lionel Belmon, Adolph Menjou, Lloyd Whitlock, Alec B. Francis, Ray Howard, Gloria Hope and Charles Hill Mailes.

Corinne Griffith, Vitaphone star has just finished a new production. Its title is "A Virgin's Sacrifice," and it is a snow picture. It was directed by Webster Campbell.

"The Sheik's Wife" and "Gypsy Passion," two big special productions which were recently seen on Broadway, New York, are now being shown in various parts of the country. In "Gypsy Passion," the famous Madame Rejane is seen on the screen for the first time.

AMUSEMENTS TO-DAY

Royal—"Pay Day."
Capitol—"Find the Woman."
Dominion—"Bought and Paid For."
Variety—"A Ridin' Romeo."

FINE ROLE FOR ALMA RUBENS

Popular Player in "Find the Woman" at Capitol

Alma Rubens, who is the featured player in "Find the Woman," a Cosmopolitan production released by Paramount, is a descendant of Peter Paul Rubens, the famous Flemish painter. By a peculiar coincidence there was placed in one of the settings in the picture—a drawing room in the home of the character interpreted by Miss Rubens—a bronze statuette of the great painter.

The actress, while not an adept at handling the palette, is thoroughly at home in any art museum; indeed she spends much of her spare time in the Metropolitan Museum in New York City. In "Find the Woman" Miss Rubens plays a part well suited to her outstanding talents. She is seen as Sophie Carey, a concert singer, who befriends a girl from a country town who is in New York to try to make her way on the stage. The two young women are strangely involved in a murder, mystery, one of the most sensational in years. It is known that about the time the victim was killed in his office a woman was seen leaving the room by way of a fire escape. Thus it is up to the police to "Find the Woman."

Arthur Somers Roche wrote the story for Cosmopolitan Magazine and Doty Hobart adapted it to the screen. It was directed by Tom Terris, who also directed "Boomerang Bill" with Lionel Barrymore, Eileen Hobart, well known on the speaking stage, has an important role, as have George MacQuarrie, Norman Kerry, Harrison Ford, Ethel Dury and Henry Sedley. The picture will be shown at the Capitol Theatre beginning to-day.

Harry Pigot, a marimba player of skill, will also appear at the Capitol this week, at the de luxe shows. In his rendering of popular musical numbers Capitol patrons will find something novel and entertaining.

TWO STARS IN DOMINION FEATURE

Paramount Offering Will Be Presented in "Bought and Paid For."

Two Paramount stars, Agnes Ayres and Jack Holt, who were featured respectively in "The Sheik," "The Call of the North," and "The Lane That Had No Turning," play the two principal roles—those of Robert Stafford and Virginia Blaine—in "Bought and Paid For," the William De Mille production which will be featured at the Dominion Theatre starting to-night.

The role of Virginia Blaine was created on the stage in George Broadhurst's notable play, from which the picture was adapted, by Julia Dean.

The cast is notable for the ability of the players embraced therein. Walter Hiers, a rotund, polite comedian imitatively plays "Jimmy," which was enacted by Frank Cravens in the original stage production. Others are Leah Wyant, George Kuwa and Bernice Frank.

Of unusual interest is the fact that Mr. Bro, as we would then be, stirred the public and the critics as no pianist has done in many years. She seemed to make an immediate appeal to the fiery Latin temperament of the peoples of those countries and writers vied with each other in lauding her. For example, the Courier de la Plata of Buenos Aires said that "to say that Mlle. Mero interpreted divinely all the numbers on her programme would be superfluous, as we would then be much embarrassed to say which one charmed us the most." The El Siglo de Montevideo agreed that "this time the critics have not exaggerated; nor have the dithyrambs which have adorned the writings of the critics of Buenos Aires been excessive." And finally La Union of Buenos Aires averred that "if she had been heralded as the best pianist in the world it would not have been an act of strict justice according to her merits." Tickets and plan now at Fletcher Bros' Music House.

TOM MIX STARS AT THE VARIETY

"A Ridin' Romeo" Is Full of Riding Thrills

In "A Ridin' Romeo" Tom Mix has out done just over a fine at the Variety this week of the Mack Sennett brand. Laugh getting is the one and only object of the picture and, unless blessed with the steel muscles and unfiring energy of the ready and willing Mr. Mix, no other man would think of planning such a staggering amount of strenuous comic business. Even the lively Mr. Fairbanks never expended as many pounds of muscular activity in stunts for one of his pictures. Tom never takes time to breathe once he starts to make things interesting for the neighbors. Of course, his horseback riding is as spectacular as ever, and he gives an exhibition of driving a four-horse stage coach that is a great piece of work. At times his acting, when unaccompanied by his natural gifts for risking his neck with every indication of having the time of his life is somewhat crude, but to see him make a flying mount out of a horse to receive a million dollar thrill. It doesn't matter how often he has been seen to do it; the trick has the fresh spirit of a "Baby" Ruth home run. Tom's horse and the other members of his supporting cast are always on hand at the right moment.

KEATON'S "FROZEN" COMEDY

Buster Keaton's next two-reel super-comedy does not have to struggle along without a title any longer. The solemn visaged comedian and his staff have named it "The Frozen North." The picture, which is nearing completion, is a snow picture and is said to be one of the best comedies ever made by Keaton.

YOLANDA MERO HERE ON FRIDAY

Hungarian Pianist Made Stir in South America

When Madame Yolanda Mero, the famous Hungarian pianist, went on her conquering way in South America, she stirred the public and the critics as no pianist has done in many years. She seemed to make an immediate appeal to the fiery Latin temperament of the peoples of those countries and writers vied with each other in lauding her. For example, the Courier de la Plata of Buenos Aires said that "to say that Mlle. Mero interpreted divinely all the numbers on her programme would be superfluous, as we would then be much embarrassed to say which one charmed us the most." The El Siglo de Montevideo agreed that "this time the critics have not exaggerated; nor have the dithyrambs which have adorned the writings of the critics of Buenos Aires been excessive." And finally La Union of Buenos Aires averred that "if she had been heralded as the best pianist in the world it would not have been an act of strict justice according to her merits." Tickets and plan now at Fletcher Bros' Music House.

Barbara Bedford is getting very popular at Universal City. Having supported Hoot Gibson in "The Land of the Lost," she has now been cast in support of Frank Mayo in "Out of the Silent Night."

Madge Bellamy will play the leading feminine role in the all-star cast which is being assembled at the Thomas H. Ince studio for "Someone to Love." An elephant will figure prominently in the drama in a unique way, and it remains to be seen whether Mr. Wray has a temperamental actor on his hands or not.

CREATORE TO BE HERE NEXT WEEK

Great Bandmaster to Appear at Capitol

Those who go to hear Creatore conduct at the Capitol Theatre next Monday and Tuesday will enjoy a treat never to be forgotten. Nothing like him has ever been seen before in this country. He merely allows the emotions to get the better of him, but not to the extent that it is a weakness. His sincerity cannot be questioned.

The musicians cannot resist his fervor any more than can his audience, and so the results are not surprising. He can master a volume of amazing immensity and his programmes are inviting throughout. He knows just what he is playing, the story, the music, the scene and the playing is such that he is recognized by the leading musical critics of this country as the most wonderful director of the day.

While at the Regent Theatre in Toronto, all this proved true of Creatore. He was the talk of the city and thousands of people tried to gain admission to the theatre during his week's appearance, but were disappointed. At every performance Creatore played to capacity houses.

G. A. U. V. SMOKER.

A smoking concert will be held in the club rooms, Langley Street, this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock sharp.

The male members of the Princess Players, Harry Leland, Carl Moore, Spike Campbell and Billy Hansen, have kindly consented to assist in the programme, which is more than appreciated. The Princess Players are doing their utmost for all returned men, the members consider, as is evidenced by the large attendance of returned men from the city hospitals who attend the Saturday matinees of the Players each week at the special invitation of these excellent artists.

A splendid programme has been arranged by the management, and the members are looking forward to a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

Elinor Glynn, the novelist, who has been devoting her talents to writing directly for the screen, has been engaged to prepare the scenario for a story called "The Eyes of Truth," which will picture life among the movie people in Hollywood, truthfully. The film, it is hoped, will offset some of the abuse heaped upon the people of the movies.

Some boys were being given instruction in diving. This particular lesson was on the swallow dive. "Now, Jenkins," said the instructor to the most backward pupil, "you take a turn."

Jenkins made a hopeless attempt and created an alarming splash. "That's not a swallow dive," said the instructor.

"Isn't it?" gurgled the unfortunate Jenkins. "Why, I thought I'd swallowed the whole pond!"—Tit-Bits.

Mrs. "Awkins": "They tell me your husband's locked up, Mrs. 'Ope."

Mrs. "Ope": "Yes, an' there's a woman in the case, Mrs. 'Awkins."

Mrs. "Awkins": "A woman?"

Mrs. "Ope": "Yes, they say 'e is charged with Miss Demeanour!"—Tit-Bits.

DELIGHTFUL COMEDY BY U.B.C. PLAYERS

Has Won Praise of Critics Generally

"Mr. Pim Passes By" was declared the hit of the season when recently presented in Toronto for the first time in Canada. Introduced to New York by the Theatre Guild in February of last year, the play ran for eight months before going on a limited tour. The New York Telegram termed it, "One of the most entertaining comedies New York has ever seen." In Philadelphia, where it was next presented, The Evening Bulletin remarked, "Seldom in a season does such a delightful comedy and one so delightfully done appear in this city." The Boston Transcript termed this English offering, "a playful, flimsy, and in Chicago where it is now playing, the critics unite in praising its refreshing quality."

By special permission of A. A. Milne, former editor of "Punch," this bright comedy will be presented by the University Players' Club at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Monday May 1, under the auspices of Victoria Kiwanis Club and under patronage of Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Nichol Hon. J. D. and Mrs. MacLean, Mayor and Mrs. Marchant.

The play has not yet appeared west of Chicago, so the club is honored in giving the western premiere to a comedy so widely endorsed.

Frank D. Ormston has been engaged by Mary Pickford as art director for her new production, "Tess of the Storm Country," and will commence work at once on designs for the sets for this picture. Ormston was recently connected with the Katherine MacDonald Company. Prior to that he was art director for Robertson-Cole and designed the sets for Kismet, one of the most lavish productions of the screen. Ormston bears the distinction of being one of the pioneer art directors of the picture industry. For three and a half years he was with Lois Weber, and in addition to designing all sets for her productions, laid out the Lois Weber Studios.

Washington, April 17.—The Senate on Saturday adopted the House joint resolution extending to June 1, 1924, the provisions of the present three per cent immigration restriction law. Several amendments were added to the House measure, which originally would have extended the present law for one year only, or to June 1, 1923.

ONTARIO RAILWAYS.

Hamilton, Ont., April 17.—James McVellair and A. C. Stewart, de-gates from North Bay, protested at Saturday's session of the Ontario Labor Party's convention against newspaper reports of the resolution on hydro-radial railways. Mr. Stewart said that while they favored radials, they were opposed to Sir Adam Beck's system of duplicating lines.

MRS. MARY A. SPENCER, of Watertown, N. Y., aged 75, who declares she gained fifteen pounds on Tanlac and feels just fine all the time. Was in badly run-down condition.

"Just think of it, at seventy-five years of age to be made well and strong again and gain twelve pounds in weight, but this is exactly what I did after taking Tanlac. Not only that, I feel years younger," said Mrs. Mary A. Spencer, East St., life-long resident of Watertown, N. Y.

"For over a year I was in a terribly run-down condition, and I was so nervous and restless that many a night I would hear the clock strike every hour. I was able to eat very little and lost strength right along, finally becoming so weak I could hardly walk from one room to the other.

On account of my age I thought my declining health was natural, but Tanlac has proved that I was mistaken. I can do all my own housework now, I sleep all night long, wake up in the morning feeling refreshed and just feel fine all the day long. Tanlac can't be praised too much."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by the Owl Drug Co., Limited, and all other druggists. (Adv't.)

TRAPPER KILLED IN MANITOBA BY PACK OF WOLVES

Winnipeg, April 17.—The body of Ben Cochran, a trapper, was found torn to shreds north of Fisher River on Lake Winnipeg on Thursday last, Cochran having been attacked by a pack of timber wolves, according to word received here. His bones and pieces of his clothing and a rifle with a broken stock were also found nearby. Before succumbing to the pack, Cochran shot seven wolves dead and clubbed four to death, their bodies lying around his tattered remains, being the only evidence of his fight for life.

BUSINESS FAILURES.

Ottawa, April 17.—Notice of fifty-nine assignments under the Bankruptcy Act were contained in last week's issue of The Canada Gazette.

Headache

Recurring headaches usually come from an exhaustion of the nervous system, and they do not disappear until the vigor of the nerve cells is restored by such up-building treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Temporary relief by use of powders is often obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system and the general health.

Get the nerves right and the headaches will not return.

Mrs. W. J. Pearce, Nunn St., Cobourg, Ont., writes:

"My system became run-down and I suffered greatly with pain in my head. This was so severe that I would have to bind a cloth tightly about my head so that I could get my work done. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after taking the first box I found quite an improvement in my condition. I continued using until I had taken about seven boxes, and they strengthened and built up my system splendidly, completely relieving the pain in my head."

WILL ASK SHORTT TO PROBE SCHOOL FINANCING HERE

Civic Authorities Want His Investigations to Embrace All Departments

Dr. Adam Shortt's investigation into civic finances, which will commence immediately after the Doctor's arrival here to-morrow, will extend beyond the City Council's functions and will include in its scope the work of the School Board and other civic spending bodies. This was made known during the last few days after members of the City Council had discussed informally Dr. Shortt's visit and its purposes.

Members of the Council are particularly anxious to have Dr. Shortt look into school financing and the system under which the Council finds the money for school expenditures. They believe that Dr. Shortt will support their claim that the Council, which levies taxation, should have power to control school expenditures and hopeful that he will recommend a revision of the present laws.

It is thus apparent that the civic authorities expect Dr. Shortt to ransack the City's finances from top to bottom, leaving out no department in his investigations. How long he will take to complete this formidable task is not known yet but the Council appears ready to give him as much time as he desires. A comfortable office has been prepared for him and the whole Hall, with all its books and documents, will be opened for his inspection.

Following his suggestion to the Council last week that the public-spirited citizens who are paying Dr. Shortt's expenses should be given ample opportunity to lay their views before him, Mayor Marchant has addressed a letter on the subject to the members of the Council.

"You will probably have observed from the newspapers that Dr. Shortt has replied to our formal invitation to visit the city for the purpose, as previously discussed in an interview between Messrs. Dean and Sayward and others, in relation to the financial affairs of Victoria."

Asks for Questions.
"As far as I know at present, Dr. Shortt left Ottawa yesterday and may be expected to arrive on the 18th. "As you were one of the contributors to the fund raised for the expenses of Dr. Shortt's visit, I would specially request that you formulate a series of questions or suggestive references that may elicit the information required in connection with this inquiry. I suggest that this be done singly by each contributor rather than as a result of a conference, in as much as each contributor would probably be able to bring his own individual ideas of the situation into the field of inquiry, although it would be quite in order if you deemed it advisable to have a small committee appointed, which would not only formulate a questionnaire, but would further assist in watching the progress of the investigation."

"I shall personally have pleasure on behalf of the City Council, in pressing upon the attention of Dr. Shortt various questions that may be deemed pertinent to the occasion along the lines of the suggestions that I made to you in a previous communication."

"I am arranging the office formerly occupied by the mayors of the city for the reception and use of Dr. Shortt and hope you will be able to take a full share in the work of the commission. It is most desirable that those who have been so generously interested in the promotion of this inquiry should add to their previous interest by personal visitation and consideration of the various matters under the purview of Dr. Shortt."

GIFTED ARTISTS IN TWO RECITALS

Alice Baroni, Coloratura Soprano, at Empress Ballroom This Week

Two recitals will be given by Alice Baroni, prima donna, coloratura soprano, late of the San Carlo Opera Company, at the Empress Hotel ballroom on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, commencing at 8.15. The recitals will be under the auspices of the Margaret Rocke Robertson Chapter, I. O. D. E.

Mme. Baroni will be assisted by two equally gifted artists, Lilian Pringle, cellist, and Edith Gyllenberg, pianist. Madame Baroni made her debut in Milan, Italy, having studied under Bruno Steidel at his Chicago studio and spent some years in Holland under the instruction of Anton Hekking, the great master of the cello.

The appearance of these three distinguished artists promises to be one of the greatest musical treats of the season.

SAYS SOUL'S FIGHT TO END LIMITATION SHOWS GREATNESS

Dr. Newton Sees Progress in Impatience With Barriers

New York, April 15.—The eternal human struggle to escape from human limitations, which was the meaning of the ancient myth of the chained Prometheus, and the inspiration of Peter's statement that Christ preached unto "spirits in prison," is also the force behind modern scientific and other achievement, Dr. Joseph F. Newton asserted at the Church of the Divine Paternity.

"Our interpretation of the fact of human limitations to-day," said Dr. Newton, "differs greatly from that of our fathers. Many things which they accepted fatalistically we refuse to accept."

"We have rejected their idea of the limit of youth. Lincoln, at the age of forty-seven, wrote of himself as 'old and withered.' Dr. Johnson thought himself venerable at forty-five. We know now that life should be in its full tide and splendor, intellectually, spiritually and physically at that period."

Life More Worth While.
"Life seems to us more worth while and full of interest. We live more in a day than Methuselah did in ten years."

"Great evils—like polygamy, slavery and war—that seem in the past to have been accepted as part of the order of things, have been or are being destroyed, one after another. We are even beginning to think that poverty and much of the disease in the world need not and must not be."

"Men are also impatient of intellectual limitations now. Some even love all truth in their grasping after ultimate truth. They forget the wisdom of the Greeks, who told us to think as mortals and remember the limits of mortality."

"In the realm of science we have made almost incredible progress, but in the matter of political organization we have not advanced so far. The human front against the forces of darkness and ignorance does not move forward all at once; one sector makes an advance and another

SCIENTISTS FIND MEANEST DISEASE

Colds Weaken the System And Pave Way for More Trouble

There is nothing that will sour your temper quicker than a cold in the head. Most people will snifle and cough until they become sick enough to see a doctor who in nearly every case prescribes standard remedies and drugs for a cure.

The standard prescription which has been used by physicians successfully for many years is now put up in capsule form under the name of Grip-Fix. The exact formula is on every box and the makers of Grip-Fix invite you to submit it to your family physician for his approval.

When you notice the first symptoms of a cold coming on take two Grip-Fix capsules according to the directions on the box. If these directions are followed to the letter your cold will be relieved in a night.

A good plan is to always keep a box of Grip-Fix in your house. You are always in danger of colds and when you have Grip-Fix with you, you can feel immune. It is easy to cure if taken at the start. There is nothing more foolish than to let a cold "run its course."

Grip-Fix may be obtained at any drug store at 35 cents a box. Be sure to remember the name and to avoid substitutes. There is no real substitute for Grip-Fix. Vancouver Drug Co., Limited, special agents. (Adv't.)

There is usually an "if" to perfect happiness in marriage. Could the mutual courtesy and consideration of the first few months be maintained through the years, marriage would have no "ifs."

In olden times there was once a King who loved a Beggar Maid; for Cupid, the true democrat, recognizes no class distinctions.

To-day one of Cupid's happy hunting grounds is the hotel lobby, where all classes and conditions of people meet and mingle.

Well, if you can't love a man as rich as Stafford, take my advice and consult a heart specialist.

retreats. It is a zigzag, wavering line.

"Science has helped us to revise our conceptions of the limits of mortality. The great teachers of modern times have also helped—Browning, most of all, I am inclined to think. The basis of all Browning's thinking was the fact that we are limited and beat against the bars. 'Ah,' he says, 'that shows, not that life is mean, but that the soul is great.'"

Shackleton and Browning.
"The explorer Shackleton, it is said, carried with him all his life a volume of Browning. It went with him on his last voyage into the Antarctic from which he never returned."

"Shackleton was not content to accept geography as it was; he wanted to push its limits further and further even to the Pole itself."

"That is the spirit of our time, and it is a beautiful and good spirit."

"We should, of course, find out—each for himself—just what we can do. That will save us from trying to do what we cannot do and becoming round pegs in square holes."

But there are unguessed, undiscovered powers in all of us, and we should not accept too quickly the limits that seem to be assigned to us. De Morgan had never done anything of the sort 'Joseph Vance' at sixty, when kind before.

"Certainly we must not accept limits in the moral and spiritual realm. Here are the two windows that are always open out of the prison of life. There is no limit to the height to which the soul of any man can ascend."

"And there are other windows too several laws of emancipation. One is the law of continuity and accumulation. The New York Public Library a great beehive, with thousands of books like little cells in which great and beautiful minds of all ages have deposited honey from fields of facts and fancy, the essence of their lives and left it there for all of us. Perhaps we can add one cell toward the accumulation of mortal and spiritual worth in the world."

GIDEON HICKS TO ASSIST ARION CLUB

New Numbers for Attractive
Programme on April 27

On Thursday evening, April 27, the Arion Male Voice Club, an organization which all Victoria is justifiably proud of, will give the second concert of their thirtieth season at the Empress Hotel ballroom.

The first part of the programme as arranged will consist of such well-known numbers as "The Pilgrim's Chorus," from Tannhauser, "The Waltz," "The March of the Men of Harlech," "Stars of the Summer Night" and others. The second part will be devoted to the rendering of a symphonic ode called "The Desert," by Felicien David, and this will be accompanied by the members of the Victoria Symphony Orchestra.

This work upon which the chief fame of the composer was founded was first produced in 1844, and embodies the impressions of his life in the East. It is divided into three parts subdivided into several vocal and orchestral movements, each introduced by some lines of descriptive recitation. The subject is the mighty desert itself with all its gloom and grandeur and depicts a caravan in various situations, singing hymns of Allah, battling with the simoon and resting in the evening by the fountain of the oasis. The orchestration is beautiful and very descriptive and conveys a vividness of descriptive power rarely equalled by much greater musicians.

There are several tenor solos in the work, and these will be taken by Mr. Guy, the orchestra embracing such well-known musicians as Mrs. Huntley Green, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Leeder, Mrs. Percy Brown, Drury Price and many others who will assuredly be a feature of the concert, and in addition to accompanying "The Desert" will also assist the club in "The Men of Harlech" and "The Pilgrim's Chorus."

Another welcome feature of the programme will be the singing of Gideon Hicks, who has kindly consented to sing for the club on this occasion. Mr. Hicks' singing ability is so well known in Victoria and elsewhere that the audience will enjoy a rich treat in listening to his charming voice used with such art and perfection.

In order that others than subscribing members to the club may have an opportunity of hearing this concert, the active members of the Arion Club are giving up their usual quota of tickets, and a limited number of these are now on sale at Kent's Phonograph Store. It would be well to make early application, as owing to the seating accommodation of the hall only a certain number can be set aside for the general public.

AND HE USUALLY DOES THAT

After a man has made an ass of himself and thrown away his chances there isn't much left except the pleasure of complaining that people didn't treat him right.

The head of the office was in a thoroughly bad temper, and moreover, he had just broken his glasses and could only read with difficulty the figures the clerk set before him. "Just look at this 9," he roared. "It's exactly like a 7."

"The figure is a 7, sir," said the clerk.

"Then," roared the old man, "why does it look like a 9?"

PRINCIPAL GRANT LEAVES VICTORIA

Interesting Link With First
Overland Railway Survey

Principal W. L. Grant's message to the people of Victoria, before he left Victoria on Saturday afternoon after a forty-eight-hour visit, was one of encouragement to maintain international amity, a subject on which he has spoken several times on this Western tour.

Mr. Grant, as a well-known historian and constitutional authority on Canada, pointed out to The Times that Canadians are at length awakening to the fact that British diplomacy, in its relation to the United States on affairs exclusively appertaining to British North America, has not been so unwise as many think.

Boundary questions have continued to rankle for many years, but he observed that Great Britain has forced arbitration in a number of instances, as in the San Juan award, at a time when relations were very strained. He expressed his satisfaction at the number of bodies which had sprung up on both sides of the line in the Pacific Northwest since he was last in Victoria in August, 1918, having in view better British-American relations.

Upper Canada Men.
As Principal of Upper Canada College, Mr. Grant said he had met a great many men of the school out here, occupying positions of credit to themselves and the college.

He mentioned an interesting personal link with Victoria and a forgotten page in the early history of the Province. His father, the late Dr. Grant, educationalist and author, was pastor of a church in Halifax from 1862 to 1877, and while there was attached to the overland expedition of Sir Sanford Fleming in 1872. This expedition seeking a railway route came to Victoria in that year, the first of many which outfitted for the overland survey, and the speaker was born at Halifax the day after his father returned from the great trip. The story was told in "From Ocean to Ocean," published in 1873, being the forerunner of books on Canadian travel subsequent to the admission of Manitoba to the Confederation.

SECOND WEEK OF MAY IS PERIOD SET

Salvation Army Effort Planned
Next Month

The annual Self Denial appeal for the Salvation Army to be carried out this year during the week extending from Sunday, May 7 to Sunday, May 14.

General interest in the Self Denial efforts of the Salvationists lies in the fact that this is the one occasion each year when this organization makes a direct appeal to the general public, to help swell the funds which are used to maintain the various social activities of the Salvation Army, apart from their evangelistic mission—to help support the Army's maternity hospitals, rescue homes, men's hostels, and other work and prison missions throughout Western Canada.

The Salvation Army divides its highly detailed organization into divisional units in this category. Western Canada from the head of the lakes to the Pacific Ocean is included in one administrative unit known as the Territorial of Canada West, with territorial headquarters at Winnipeg and divisional headquarters at various points from Fort William to Victoria. It is this district that will observe the period from May 7 to May 14 as Self Denial Week, Eastern Canada having had its Self Denial fortnight in May. The same occasion is observed throughout the whole world at some convenient time, usually in the Spring, as the Salvation Army is now operating in some 73 countries.

In the larger cities of Western Canada, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary, Vancouver, etc., the actual Self Denial appeal of May 7-14 will be preceded about the last of April by the call of the Salvation Army through a canvass of the business area of each of these cities. It has already been announced that in Winnipeg the Kiwanis Club of this city will conduct the business canvass on behalf of the Salvation Army, covering the business area of Winnipeg for that purpose during the days of April 25 to April 28, and similar canvasses will be undertaken in each city.

Many Are Aided.

The list of institutions in Western Canada for which the money raised by the Salvation Army is used is a long and imposing one, indicated by its very length the extent to which the work of the Salvation Army penetrates our social fabric. In this territory, the Salvation Army maintains four rescue homes for girls, four children's homes, three maternity hospitals of which Grace Hospital in Victoria is the largest, and in Western Canada, and in which 1,345 babies were born within the last twelve months. The Army also maintains a girls' industrial home in this territory and a young women's boarding home, besides men's hostels and industrial homes in Port Arthur, Fort William, Winnipeg, Regina, Edmonton, Calgary, Vancouver and Victoria.

Aside from these prominent institutions there are other social activities to be provided for, including the organization which holds religious services in all prisons, the free employment bureau of which the Army maintains eight in Western Canada. The winter relief work which is carried on at all of their posts, and the Soldiers' Training College at Winnipeg where the nurses and officers who maintain the Army Social Welfare work receive their training.

In Victoria, the Self Denial appeal of the Salvation Army will be carried out under the direction of Commandant George Weir and the local officers, assisted by friends.

Father was very tired, and he was not so patient as usual with his eight-year-old Isabel. After he had answered a number of questions as well as he could, she flung this one at him: "Daddy, what do you do at the office all day?"

"Oh, nothing much," said he, with a sigh.

Isabel spent a few minutes in pondering this answer. Then she said: "But, daddy, how do you know when you have finished?"

COWICHAN BIRDS WILL BE LISTED

Useful Pamphlet Being Prepared at Duncan

(Times Correspondence.)

Duncan, April 15.—"Twelfth Night" is to be produced by the students of the Duncan High School Commonwealth on Friday, May 5 in the Agricultural Hall, Duncan.

The police will be in charge of the orchestra, and the cast will be made up entirely of High School students each actor having one or more underlings.

"Orlando, Duke of Illyria," Dick Mellin; "Olivia," Ina Castley; "Maria," Margaret Hopkins; "Sir Toby Belch," Furdinand Munro; "Sir Andrew Ague Cheek," Lydia Bartlett; "Antonio," John Morris; the goiter, Anna Kier; "Valentine," Stuart Clement; "Curio," William Trenholm; officers, Kenneth Peterson and Douglas Tait; priest, Gladys Pitt; "Fabiun," John Fox; "Sebastian," Harold Leffer; "Malvolio," Hilda Best. Stage manager, Dr. Black. Costumes by Miss Davidson.

It is expected that the play will also be staged at Cobble Hill and Chemainus.

As the students will study "Twelfth Night" in their literature course next year the time spent in its preparation has been well spent. The proceeds will go to the library and athletic funds of the school.

Mr. Ashby has been asked to put the play on at an earlier date but the counter attractions that are coming immediately after Lent made this inadvisable.

The annual meeting of the Cowichan Field Naturalists was held last week and the reports showed a satisfactory year's work.

Dennis Ashby gave a very interesting and useful talk on "Birds of Prey." Among the most important facts in the address were: Vultures breed here, live on carrion and should be protected as in every state in the U. S. A. Harriers represented here by the Marsh Hawk destroy rodents and insects and are a benefit. The Bald Eagle eats carrion and may now and then take a live grouse. All eagles should be protected rather than have a bounty placed on them.

The Cooper Hawk, commonly called the Blue Darter, is the most destructive hawk in Canada. Mr. Ashby has seen one of these carry thirteen grouse and pheasants to her nest. The sharp skinned hawk is almost as bad. The sparrow hawk feeds on grasshoppers largely and is beneficial. A letter of thanks was passed to Mr. Ashby.

A resolution from the Vancouver Natural History Society regarding boundaries on Cowichan Island was read. The resolution suggested that the whole of the island on which bounty was paid should be surrendered in order that the Cowichan contents might be examined. The principle of the resolution was endorsed and a suggested addition that the bounty be taken off bald and golden eagles was approved by the meeting. Officers elected were: President A. W. Hanham; First Vice-President G. Day; Second Vice-President Mrs. F. T. Leather; Committee, Mrs. G. G. Henderson, Miss Wilson, Dr. N. H. Black, W. M. Fleming, F. A. Monk and S. M. MacLennan.

Mr. Ashby has for some years been making a study of the local birds and is preparing a pamphlet on them under the auspices of the Cowichan Field Naturalists. This will be a companion to the "Annotated Check List of the Flowering Plants and Ferns," native and introduced and growing without cultivation in the Cowichan district, compiled by R. Glendinning under the Field Naturalists' Club.

It will be some time necessarily before Mr. Ashby can complete his work. In the meantime there is no complete list of Vancouver Island birds.

HERE FROM EARLY PORT OF MEXICO

H. M. Weir Visits Victoria;
Conditions in Southern Republic

The recognition of President Obregon, of Mexico, by the Powers is the great need of Mexico to-day, according to H. M. Weir, of San Blas, who arrived in the city on Saturday, and is registered at the Empress Hotel.

Mr. Weir makes a point of coming to Victoria each Spring, in time to avoid the rainy season which renders life in Mexico uncomfortable from May to August.

He brings a story of wonderful potential resources awaiting development in the states between the Sierras and the Pacific Ocean, south from the port of Guaymas. Contrasting with the rich productivity of the West Coast littoral, and the very large shipments of oranges and tomatoes to the cities of the United States, is the fact that owing to the lack of canning equipment, vast quantities of fruit are annually wasted. He points out that the season being two weeks ahead of Southern California, it is possible to cut into that market, and practically form the sole source of supply from January to March inclusive in American markets.

City of the Hills.
Situated in the hills 5,000 feet above sea level is Guadalajara, the second city of Mexico, which serves to the Western states as "London and Paris rolled into one." Mr. Weir, who has travelled widely says that city has the finest climate, wide perpetual Spring. When rail communication is completed from Tepic, South from the United States frontier it will be placed in direct touch with the cities of California. This undertaking is now rapidly approaching completion.

It is an interesting historical feature that the city, near the Sierras, overshadowed by Mexican and other ports, was the centre of Spanish administration on the Pacific Coast in the eighteenth century. From it the Spanish squadrons sailed which occupied Nootka, and held Vancouver Island during the short Spanish regime. Now Mr. Weir says San Blas is a relatively small place, the march of development having gone on elsewhere.

should be protected rather than have a bounty placed on them.

The resolution suggested that the whole of the island on which bounty was paid should be surrendered in order that the Cowichan contents might be examined. "Whereas this meeting of Nanaimo citizens and accredited delegates of public and semi-public organizations is of the opinion that Oriental immigration into Canada is permitted to continue must inevitably sap the foundations of our moral and economic life;

We respectfully urge upon the Dominion Government the imperative necessity of enacting legislation that will give effect to the wishes of the people of B. C.
